

Reflection Wednesday Week 5 – 2024

Reflecting on the wisdom of Solomon which brought the Queen of Sheba to visit him, it is appropriate to re-read the following reflection from St John Henry Newman:

“God has created me to do Him some definite service. He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission. I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next. I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons. He has not created me for naught. I shall do good; I shall do His work. I shall be an angel of peace, a preacher of truth in my own place, while not intending it if I do but keep His commandments.

Therefore, I will trust Him, whatever I am, I can never be thrown away. If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve Him, in perplexity, my perplexity may serve Him. If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve Him. He does nothing in vain. He knows what He is about. He may take away my friends. He may throw me among strangers. He may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink, hide my future from me. Still, He knows what He is about.”

We are heirs of God and fellow-heirs of Christ, and we are justified by his blood provided we share his sufferings. Thus, we share his glory.

- What's the difference between knowledge and wisdom?
- Knowledge is knowing tomatoes are a fruit. Wisdom is not to put tomatoes in a fruit salad.
