Prayer for those seeking sanctuary

Lord Jesus, we pray for those members of God's family who come here to escape oppression, poverty, persecution, violence, and war. Let them not meet with fear, doubt or suspicion from the local population. May those seeking sanctuary in our country receive a warm and generous welcome as they settle-in and commence their new life. Joyfully, we welcome the many gifts they bring to us. We make this prayer in Jesus' name. Amen.

Readings: Acts: 3:13-15,17-19, 1 Jn 2:1-5, Luke 24:35-48

Entrance Antiphon: Cry out with joy to God, all the earth; O sing to the glory of his name. O render him glorious praise, alleluia.

Psalm: Show us, Lord, the path of life.

Alleluia!

Intercession: We pray to the Lord...

Response: Lord, hear us!

Next Week: Acts 4:8-12, 1 John 3:1-2, John 10:11-18

Ramblings Although we do not speak about it often, in being baptised or brought into the church there follows one more stage we call Mystagogy. A time for the newly baptised who are old enough to reflect on the journey that they began well before Easter but were baptised at the Easter vigil. It is an opportunity to reflect on the commitment they have made. Our faith needs mystagogy first and foremost because we celebrate and proclaim a mystery. One might simply describe it as a reflection on what it means to participate in the life of Jesus Christ.

Faith begins and ends in mystery, most especially the mystery of the Most Holy Trinity, "the central mystery of Christian faith and life . . . the source of all other mysteries of faith" (CCC 234). In the scriptures, liturgy, and sacraments, we truly encounter and participate in the life of the Trinity, the life of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. But no matter how intelligent or astute we are, we will never fully appreciate or grasp God's glory in its totality.

Mystagogy is a Greek word meaning, "to lead through the mysteries." The Catechism describes mystagogy as a "liturgical catechesis that aims to initiate people into the mystery of Christ" (CCC 1075). Mystagogy leads us from the external signs and rituals of the liturgy to the inner, spiritual meaning of the divine life they signify. Mystagogy can help us unpack and explore the spiritual treasures contained in the sacraments by continuously reflecting on their meaning and significance in our faith life.

In fact, all followers of Christ are invited to live a continuous mystagogy, deepening their lives of faith. Gabriel Marcel is attributed as stating, "Life is not a problem to be solved, but a mystery to be lived." Mystagogy encourages us to learn to live this mystery of our faith.

Could you offer the North Herts MS Society 'Wednesday Club' help on one Wednesday per month- perhaps less, depending on numbers? At the 'Wednesday Club', Physiotherapists provide a weekly group physio session, (at Hadleigh in Letchworth) and then participating members have the option of a lunch afterwards. Each member suffers from Multiple Sclerosis at varying stages. It is also a much needed social occasion too, as tea/coffee/biscuits are provided beforehand and then the provision of lunch afterwards.

This is where your help is desperately needed. Could you spare one Wednesday per month, ( less depending on volunteer numbers) to provide a lunch- which can be light, made on site or bought pre - prepared and heated and served. (All food costs incurred are of course covered). If you are able to help ( please ) please contact Helen Ilsey (Lead Support Volunteer) on: 07788991589.
