Year A SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

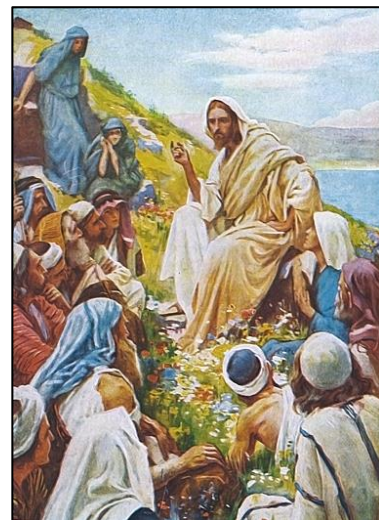

16th FEBRUARY 2014

GOSPEL: Matthew 5: 17–37

You have learnt how it was said to our ancestors; but I say this to you ...

My Dear Parishioners of St Augustine's,

OUR LONG GOSPEL PASSAGE THIS SUNDAY brings us a significant section of Our Lord's 'Sermon on the Mount' (a famous collection of Jesus's teachings which takes up chapters 5–7 of St Matthew). It is said to have taken place in the hills above Lake Galilee, a tranquil and picturesque spot, with a beautiful view of the Lake. But Jesus's teachings in the Sermon on the Mount are not soft or soppy sentiments: they are a great challenge to us in our lives of faith. Jesus takes elements of the Law and the Commandments — which all the Jews knew, coming down to them from the time of Moses — but explained how they were to be taken to a deeper level; not kept in a minimalistic way, but kept to the full, in the way God had always intended. We would do well to listen very carefully to the Gospel teaching today, and to let Our Lord's words really penetrate our hearts.

OUR GROWING IN FAITH CAMPAIGN — our parish's contribution to the diocesan scheme to support our parishes, our priests, and our diocesan Caritas (caring for the poor and needy) — is now well under way. I will continue to be inviting parishioners to come and hear about the needs of our Diocese and the parish project (see inside the Newsletter). But also, as of this week, so will other parishioners be reaching out into the parish to share this, and invite your involvement. If you get a request to have a visit from a parishioner, do be generous in letting them come and fill you in on Growing in Faith and what we can do with the money raised. Let's do our best, please, all of us, together, to make this a success!

 On the evening of March 12th (8pm) Bishop John Sherrington — our auxiliary bishop in Hertfordshire — will come and address an open meeting of the parish, and explain further about the campaign  and give us all the opportunity to ask questions and consider giving to the scheme. Drinks and nibbles will be provided so we can mingle and chat with the bishop afterwards.

May God bless us this week and may Our Lady's prayers help us to be holy.

Fr Philip

From Gaudium et Spes, Vatican II on 'The Church in the Modern World,' n. 12:

Sacred Scripture teaches that man was created "to the image of God," is capable of knowing and loving his Creator, and was appointed by Him as master of all earthly creatures that he might subdue them and use them to God's glory. "What is man that you should care for him? You have made him little less than the angels, and crowned him with glory and honour. You have given him rule over the works of your hands, putting all things under his feet." But God did not create man as a solitary, for from the beginning "male and female he created them." Their companionship produces the primary form of interpersonal communion. For by his innermost nature man is a social being, and unless he relates himself to others he can neither live nor develop his potential. Therefore, as we read elsewhere in Holy Scripture God saw "all that he had made, and it was very good."

PLEASE TELL US IF ANYONE IS HOUSEBOUND, EVEN TEMPORARILY, SO THEY CAN BE VISITED & HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION.

IF YOU GO IN TO HOSPITAL: Catholics in hospital are unlikely to receive an automatic visit from the Catholic Chaplain, as this information is now systematically withheld from Chaplains. If someone is sick in hospital, please let us know here at the presbytery, or ask the staff on the ward, so that your loved one can be visited whilst in hospital, and receive Holy Communion and any other Sacraments from the Chaplain.

Our parish's Growing in Faith season runs from January–Easter, with our opportunity, along with all the Catholics of the Diocese, to support the needs of the local Church.

The aim of Growing in Faith is three-fold:

1. To build up parish life.*
2. To support priests' welfare, in particular the funding of priestly training for our many seminarians; and the care for those priests in retirement and sickness.
3. To further the work of our diocesan Caritas (<http://rcdow.org.uk/caritas/>) which promotes initiatives for the poor, needy and vulnerable in our diocese.

 Our local parish project is a very important one: to employ a part-time parish catechist to add to the great work already going on at St Augustine's in First Holy Communion and Confirmation, RCIA etc. by wonderful volunteers. There are so many other opportunities for catechesis and work amongst the youth & young adults of our parish which we could begin through a new employee.

Fr Philip is gradually sharing this vision one-to-one with more parishioners, and starting this coming week, some other parish volunteers will also begin to share the needs of the fundraising with you.

 BISHOP JOHN SHERRINGTON WILL VISIT US RE GROWING IN FAITH ON 12TH MARCH 8PM — PLEASE KEEP THIS DATE FREE! ***

<http://rcdow.org.uk/growing-in-faith/> — has more information and a video message from the Archbishop.
