OUR NOVEMBER PRAYERS FOR THE HOLY SOULS IN PURGATORY have a special emphasis this weekend with our Saturday-evening Mass for the deceased of the past year. The above 26 parishioners have had their funerals here in St Augustine's this year, and it is a poignant and emotional moment for their families, and for us as a parish, when we gather to especially remember them. There is no better prayer that can be offered by mankind than the Prayer of the Mass, which is Jesus's self-offering to the Father, that perfect sacrifice given on the Cross. It is very important to have the Mass offered for our deceased loved ones, as the forgiveness and grace that flow from Jesus in the Mass is immeasurable. Jesus died on the Cross for our salvation — He died to take our sins away. Just as we offer the Holy Mass for the intentions of our dearly departed, so we pray that one day others will also offer the Holy Mass, and their prayers, for us when we die. None of dies in perfection, and the dead all need the prayers of the Church to assist them in the purification of Purgatory: may we give ourselves generously in prayer this month, so that they may rest in peace.

I GAVE YOU, LAST WEEKEND, ADVANCED NOTICE OF AN EXCITING EVENING IN ADVENT, to prepare us for the real meaning of Christmas. It's called "Jingle All the Way," and it comes highly recommended. Performed by RISE Theatre (<http://www.risetheatre.co.uk/>), who came here a couple of years ago for a wonderful play about St Alban, it will be on Monday 7th December. We are selling tickets from this weekend after Masses, and at the Presbytery (£5 only) through the week. It's accessible to all ages, so please bring all the family!

May we pray for those who have died; and live in God's grace as we mean to die. Fr Philip

From Gaudium et Spes, Vatican II on 'The Church in the Modern World,' n. 73:

Along with cultural, economic and social development, there is a growing desire among many people to play a greater part in organizing the life of the political community. In the conscience of many arises an increasing concern that the rights of minorities be recognized, without any neglect for their duties toward the political community. ... However, those political systems, prevailing in some parts of the world are to be reprovved which hamper civic or religious freedom, victimize large numbers through avarice and political crimes, and divert the exercise of authority from the service of the common good to the interests of one or another faction or of the rulers themselves.

PRAYER & LITURGY

WE WELCOME INTO THE CHURCH Vinnie Salih and Sofia Martinez who will be baptised this weekend.

NOVEMBER LIST OF FAITHFUL DEPARTED: Please return the lists to the presbytery, along with any Mass offering. During November the lists will be kept on the altar and at least one Mass a day will be offered for the Holy Souls.

MASS WITH BISHOP SHERRINGTON: Bishop John will be here to celebrate Mass on Sunday 6th December at the 9.15am Mass.

SUNDAY HOLY HOUR (3rd Sunday of each month) takes place at 5pm this Sunday 15th November with a Scriptural reflection, Adoration, Evening Prayer and Benediction.

FRIDAY PRAYER GROUP: 3rd Friday of each month, 7.30–8.30pm: next meeting Nov 20th. A semi-formal hour in the Lady Chapel to reflect together on Sunday Scriptures and bring our needs and prayers to the Lord. All welcome!

THE SICK & RETIRED PRIESTS' COLLECTION: Today's second collection is for the annual Sick & Retired Priests Fund. The Fund ensures elderly and infirm priests are not alone in their senior years, after a lifetime of service. Your gift helps defray the costs the Diocese bears in fulfilling its lifetime commitment to these men. You can also donate online at www.rcdow.org.uk/donations.

LITURGICAL ITEMS: We have taken delivery of a new processional cross, as the previous one has been broken for several years; and we have received the Marian vestment. The new holy-water container is also being manufactured. MANY THANKS for the generous donations so far received to help cover these items! If anyone else wishes to contribute to these, we would be very grateful.

"INSTRUCTIONS FOR MY FUNERAL MASS" leaflets are available beside the newsletters at the back of church. If you wish to complete one, please hand in a photocopy to the presbytery.

HOUSEBOUND & SICK PARISHIONERS

We pray for our sick parishioners and friends: Sue Porto, John Askew, Rosa Augello, Roberto Piacentini, Helen Sherman, Annette Pinto, Peter Tanner, Anne Smith, Siobhan Fiorentini and Michael Foley.

PLEASE TELL US IF ANYONE IS HOUSEBOUND, EVEN TEMPORARILY, SO THEY CAN BE VISITED & HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION.

IF YOU GO IN TO HOSPITAL: Catholics in hospital are unlikely to receive an automatic visit from the Catholic Chaplain. If someone is sick in hospital, please let us know here at the Presbytery, and/or ask the staff on the ward, so that your loved one can be visited whilst in hospital, and receive Holy Communion and any other Sacraments from the Chaplain.

Chaplains are: Lister, Jacqueline Humphreys 01438-285518 or 07884-187463; Princess Alexandra, Fr Leszek Gamracy 01279-426017

On the noticeboard is now posted the most recent summary of our parish's 'Growing in Faith' donations, which benefit both the diocese, and our own parish's project of employing a part-time catechetical co-ordinator. We have raised pledges of c. £190k, to give our parish project, ultimately, a slice of c. £55k.

As yet we have not sourced anyone to take up the post of a parish catechist, but Fr Philip is in discussion with friends in the diocese who have experience in this area, to try and find a recommended and suitably qualified person for the post. Do pray that this can come about soon.
