EASTER SUNDAY

GOSPEL: John 20: 1–9

He must rise from the dead.

27TH MARCH 2016

My Dear Parishioners of St Augustine's,

A VERY HAPPY AND BLESSED EASTER TO YOU ALL! As we celebrate the glorious Resurrection of Our Lord from the dead this Sunday, we affirm that core belief in our Christian lives that He who truly died on the Cross in the savage cruelty of Calvary then truly rose again that Easter morning, fully God and fully man. In this victory over sin and death, Jesus offers us that opening to eternal life that we could simply not imagine without His Rising. So we must live our Easter faith every day; to be a real Catholic is to practise this love for Jesus by our worship and our charity throughout the year. May His grace and the Easter sacraments fill us with the joy and perseverance to be truly faithful to our divine Lord!

I THANK ALL THOSE WHO HAVE WORKED EXTRA HARD THIS HOLY WEEK! — I think especially of those who have provided the music in these sacred days, the Maundy Thursday choir, our organists, cantors and the Folk Group; the flower-ladies' team who have beautified the church for this Easter Sunday; the sacristan, altar servers, readers and ministers of Holy Communion who have assisted so many times over these days; the RCIA catechists who have accompanied our newly-confirmed parish members through the past months; and to the parish secretary for all her extra responsibilities 'behind the scenes' in the run-up to Easter. Thank you ALL for your wonderful help to celebrate the Lord's Passion and Resurrection so worthily!

I AM ALSO VERY GRATEFUL FOR YOUR EASTER GREETINGS, cards, and gifts; and for the Easter offertory collection which, as always, goes to support me as your Parish Priest. I hope that you, like I, will enjoy this Easter Day with a festive celebration! I shall be away at two friends' weddings later this week, and I thank Mgr Peter Wilson for being here for Masses next Saturday.

Let's give this Eastertide joyfully to Jesus and continue the good works begun in Lent! Fr Philip

From Misericordiae Vultus, Pope Francis on the 'Holy Year of Mercy,' n. 10:

Mercy is the very foundation of the Church's life. All of her pastoral activity should be caught up in the tenderness she makes present to believers; nothing in her preaching and in her witness to the world can be lacking in mercy. The Church's very credibility is seen in how she shows merciful and compassionate love. The Church "has an endless desire to show mercy." Perhaps we have long since forgotten how to show and live the way of mercy. The temptation, on the one hand, to focus exclusively on justice made us forget that this is only the first, albeit necessary and indispensable step. But the Church needs to go beyond and strive for a higher and more important goal. On the other hand, sad to say, we must admit that the practice of mercy is waning in the wider culture. In some cases the word seems to have dropped out of use. However, without a witness to mercy, life becomes fruitless and sterile, as if sequestered in a barren desert. The time has come for the Church to take up the joyful call to mercy once more. It is time to return to the basics and to bear the weaknesses and struggles of our brothers and sisters. Mercy is the force that reawakens us to new life and instils in us the courage to look to the future with hope.

Growing in Faith

Our parishes • Our priests • Our place in the world

On the noticeboard is now posted the most recent summary of our parish’s ‘Growing in Faith’ donations, which benefit both the diocese, and our own parish’s project of employing a part-time catechetical co-ordinator. We have raised pledges of c. £190k, to give our parish project, ultimately, a slice of c. £55k.

As yet we have not sourced anyone to take up the post of a parish catechist, but Fr Philip is in discussion with friends in the diocese who have experience in this area, to try and find a recommended and suitably qualified person for the post. Do pray that this can come about soon.

An information pack is available now from the presbytery. Once you have completed the form and returned it to the presbytery, your name will be added to the weekly sign-in-sheet which will be available in the church porch on the noticeboard (by the fire-exit door) for signing after the Saturday evening vigil Mass and the Masses of Sunday. On this basis Fr Philip will be in a better position to judge whether he can issue the Certificate you ask for.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

EASTER PRAYER

taken from the Easter Vigil Exsultet

Rejoice, heavenly powers!
Sing, choirs of angels!
Exult, all creation around God's throne!
Jesus Christ, our King, is risen!
Sound the trumpet of salvation.

Rejoice, O earth, in shining splendour,
radiant in the brightness of your King!
Christ has conquered! Glory fills you!
Darkness vanishes for ever.

Rejoice, O Mother Church! Exult in glory!
The risen Saviour shines upon you.
Let this place resound with joy,
echoing the mighty song of all God's people.

Father, how wonderful your care for us!
How boundless your merciful love!
To ransom a slave You gave away your Son.

O happy fault, O necessary sin of Adam,
which gained for us so great a Redeemer.
