Year A

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

30th JULY 2017

GOSPEL: Matthew 13: 44-52

He sells everything he owns and buys the field.

My Dear Parishioners of St Augustine's,

Thank you for the warm welcome.

There is one treasure that brings happiness and that treasure is the Kingdom of God, as proclaimed by Jesus Christ. The men in the parable in the Gospel of this seventeenth Sunday found the treasure, the Kingdom of God and went off happy (Mt 13:44).

If we are not happy, we have not yet found Jesus and the Kingdom He came to proclaim. Let us turn to Jesus and then we will find happiness. Do we have to set out on a journey to find this treasure and do we need a map? Yes we do. The journey, is the journey into our hearts, the map has been given to us by Jesus Himself. In the first two parables in the Gospel, the men sold everything they had so as to acquire the treasure of the pearl. Searching for Jesus and the Kingdom of God means we make choices and have to make decisions, sometimes hard decisions that we would prefer not to have made. But, for the sake of Jesus and His Kingdom we choose between other many choices. There will be passing treasures that are short term and tempting, but don't offer happiness we really need. If we want to get genuine happiness, we must leave everything else and choose Jesus the treasure and pearl of our lives.

Like King Solomon, let us ask for the gift of wisdom to make the right choices that will lead us to that treasure which will never be taken away from us.

Fr John Baptist Kisembo

Pope Francis, from Misericordia et Misera, closing the 'Holy Year of Mercy,' n. 19:

Being unemployed or not receiving a sufficient salary; not being able to have a home or a land in which to live; experiencing discrimination on account of one's faith, race or social status: these are just a few of the many examples of situations that attack the dignity of the person. In the face of such attacks, Christian mercy responds above all with vigilance and solidarity. How many situations exist today where we can restore dignity to individuals and make possible a truly humane life! Let us think only about the many children who suffer from forms of violence that rob them of the joy of life. I keep thinking of their sorrowful and bewildered faces. They are pleading for our help to be set free from the slavery of the contemporary world. These children are the young adults of tomorrow. How are we preparing them to live with dignity and responsibility? With what hope can they face their present or their future?

The social character of mercy demands that we not simply stand by and do nothing. It requires us to banish indifference and hypocrisy, lest our plans and projects remain a dead letter. May the Holy Spirit help us to contribute actively and selflessly to making justice and a dignified life not simply clichés but a concrete commitment of those who seek to bear witness to the presence of the Kingdom of God.

PARISH BOOK-KEEPER & ACCOUNTANT:

The Parish Finance Committee would like to know if there is a parishioner with book-keeping/accounting experience to volunteer for a specific role on the committee. There are two elements to the work, which could be separated. The first involves essential book-keeping, mainly involving totalling and banking the moneys received, usually on a Monday morning. This would take 2 to 3 hours per week. If anyone would like to take on this particular role the committee would be happy to discuss. The second element mainly involves keeping the parish financial records on a web-based system, carrying out monthly bank reconciliations and producing annual accounts. This would take up to 3 or 4 hours per month, and there would be some flexibility on where and when it was carried out. Training and support is available for both elements. For a job description and to receive more information, please contact the Presbytery.

PARISH BBQ will be held on Sunday 10th Sept at 1pm. The forms to request your tickets are now available at the back of church. We do need final numbers by Monday 4th September 12 noon so that we can order the food and we cannot accept people after 12 noon. There won't be a bar, so please do bring your own drink and glasses. Adults are £5, children £1 and under 5's free. Please hand your completed form and money into the presbytery. The lists for volunteers will be available soon.
