Year A

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

11th JUNE 2017

GOSPEL: John 3: 16-18

God sent his Son so that through him the world might be saved.

My Dear Parishioners of St Augustine's,

THE FEAST TODAY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY follows on naturally from our celebrations of the Easter season and of Pentecost: the revelation of Our Lord Jesus as truly divine, in His Resurrection, and the coming of God the Holy Spirit in power upon the Church of the apostles, shows God to be this Holy Trinity. "God is love," says St John in his First Letter, and it is this intimate bond of love between God the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit that is the source of all things: God's creation, and His sending of the Son and the Spirit in its re-creation. We honour God in His being Three-in-One, "the fount of all holiness," and the powerhouse of love and grace for the world.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR PRAYERS FOR THE MANCHESTER-BOMB VICTIM known to my brother's family. She is progressing well, now, in HDU, but still undergoing some further surgical time in theatre. She is out of danger, even though it will still be a long road to full recovery and discharge from hospital.

THE GENERAL ELECTION RESULT having given us a 'hung Parliament,' let's pray for the newly elected MPs of our country as a new Government takes shape. With such crucial long-term issues on the political agenda for the coming years – including our security from terrorist threats, economic stability, exiting the EU, and the need for improved NHS facilities – we should pray for our political leaders, that they can work together for the well-being of our nation, and a global peace and security.

May the Lord fill us with His Holy Spirit as we keep this feast of His anointing us! Fr Philip

Pope Francis, from Misericordia et Misera, closing the 'Holy Year of Mercy,' n. 16:

The Jubilee has now ended and the Holy Door is closed. But the door of mercy of our heart continues to remain wide open. We have learned that God bends down to us so that we may imitate him in bending down to our brothers and sisters. The yearning of so many people to turn back to the house of the Father, who awaits their return, has also been awakened by heartfelt and generous testimonies to God's love. The Holy Door that we crossed in the Jubilee Year has set us on the path of charity, which we are called to travel daily with fidelity and joy. It is the road of mercy, on which we meet so many of our brothers and sisters who reach out for someone to take their hand and become a companion on the way.
