THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

28th MAY 2017

GOSPEL: Matthew 28: 16-20

All authority, in heaven and on earth has been given to me.

My Dear Parishioners of St Augustine's,

OUR CELEBRATION TODAY OF OUR LORD'S ASCENSION TO HEAVEN brings us to the penultimate feast of the Easter season – to be completed next Sunday with the great event of Pentecost. Our Lord's return to heaven, and therefore His withdrawal from our physical sight, is most definitely not an abandoning of us. Last Sunday He said to us very clearly in the Gospel, "I do not leave you orphans." In fact, His departing from us in this physical way is precisely so that He can be with us more universally through the power of the Spirit across the whole Church at all times.

Additionally, it is important to note that Our Lord takes with Him, to heaven, our flesh. He does not shed it, and leave it behind on earth, as it were. He takes the humanity He has adopted with Him into the glory of the Father's home: so that, as He says to the apostles in St John's Gospel, "where I am, you may be too." He goes "to prepare a place for us," by entering heaven with our flesh, and going as Head where the Body, the Church, will follow.

PLEASE CONTINUE TO PRAY THE ASCENSION-TO-PENTECOST NOVENA mentioned last week, in the programme of prayer with other Christians in Britain and across the world, Thy Kingdom Come. We join together in a global surge of prayer for more people to come and know Jesus Christ. Much more information is available to view at <https://www.thykingdomcome.global/> and a chance to register your participation and light up the world map of prayer with your pledge to join in this initiative.

May the Lord bless us as we honour His holy Mother in her month of May!

Fr Philip

Pope Francis, from Misericordia et Misera, closing the 'Holy Year of Mercy,' n. 14:

We have to remember each of us carries the richness and the burdens of our personal history; this is what makes us different from everyone else. Our life, with its joys and sorrows, is something unique and unrepeatable that takes place under the merciful gaze of God. This demands, especially of priests, a careful, profound and far-sighted spiritual discernment, so that everyone, none excluded, can feel accepted by God, participate actively in the life of the community and be part of that People of God which journeys tirelessly towards the fullness of his kingdom of justice, love, forgiveness and mercy.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK WORLD COMMUNICATIONS DAY PRAYER

O God, whose word is truth and in whose light we see light, guide those who tell the story of our times through word and image. Make them seekers after truth and advocates of human dignity. Grant discernment to all who rely on their labours, and, as we confront the pain and promise of this world, awaken in us a sense of wonder at your presence and of longing for your peace. Through Christ our Lord. Amen
