FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

7th MAY 2017

GOSPEL: John 10: 1-10

I am the Gate of the Sheepfold.

My Dear Parishioners of St Augustine's,

THE FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER – GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY – is also Vocations Sunday, and as we reflect on Our Lord's image of Himself as "the Gate of the Sheepfold" and "the Good Shepherd," we also know that we need to pray continually for those who will be shepherds for Our Lord's flock in future years. Part of this keeping of 'Vocations Sunday,' therefore, is our collection for the Fund that covers the priestly training of our diocesan seminarians: please be generous in your giving, as I know from experience how crucial it is to feel supported by the people of the diocese during one's seminary years.

THIS SUNDAY SEES THE CONFIRMATION OF 41 OF OUR YOUNGER PARISHIONERS, so we pray for them and their families on this sacred day. Bishop Paul McAleenan, the auxiliary bishop in Hertfordshire, will be here to celebrate the 2 Confirmation Masses, and we look forward to his presence here, to confer the blessings of this great Sacrament. Come, Holy Spirit!

WE GO TO AYLESFORD THIS THURSDAY (11TH MAY) – there are still places left for our day pilgrimage to the peaceful and holy shrine of Our Lady of Mt Carmel in Kent, so please sign up this weekend (list in porch) for the trip, which is always a very lovely day and a special way of paying honour to Our Blessed Lady in her month of May. We depart the church at 9am.

May the Lord give us great joy as we celebrate these blessed weeks of Eastertide! Fr Philip

Pope Francis, from Misericordia et Misera, closing the 'Holy Year of Mercy,' n. 13:

All of us need consolation because no one is spared suffering, pain and misunderstanding. How much pain can be caused by a spiteful remark born of envy, jealousy or anger! What great suffering is caused by the experience of betrayal, violence and abandonment! How much sorrow in the face of the death of a loved one! And yet God is never far from us at these moments of sadness and trouble. A reassuring word, an embrace that makes us feel understood, a caress that makes us feel love, a prayer that makes us stronger ... all these things express God's closeness through the consolation offered by our brothers and sisters. Sometimes too, silence can be helpful, especially when we cannot find words in response to the questions of those who suffer. A lack of words, however, can be made up for by the compassion of a person who stays at our side, who loves us and who holds out a hand. It is not true that silence is an act of surrender; on the contrary, it is a moment of strength and love. Silence also belongs to our language of consolation, because it becomes a concrete way of sharing in the suffering of a brother or sister.
