Year A TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

15th OCTOBER 2017

GOSPEL: Matthew 22: 1-14

Invite everyone you can find to the wedding.

My Dear Parishioners of St Augustine's,

THIS WEEKEND OUR 'LOVE IN ACTION' THEME, the fourth in the series on Catholic Social Teaching, considers 'The Preferential Option for the Poor.' Having considered our previous weeks' themes of the 'Dignity of the Human Person,' and of mankind as one family, the duty to look after the poorest in society follows naturally. Much of the Church's social outreach is concerned with the relief of poverty: providing food, medicine, farming skills, and education, to the world's developing communities. As we show love for our poor neighbour, so also we witness to the demands of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Our Lord Himself did not choose to associate with the high and mighty, but lived a simple life in relative poverty, and in His teaching commands us to "give food to the hungry, drink to the thirsty, clothing to the naked, shelter to the stranger ..." We took up our CaFOD collection last Sunday, precisely to assist those in poverty: if you didn't contribute then, and would like still to add your donation to this year's Harvest Fast Day collection, then use a CaFOD envelope from alongside the newsletters.

'LOVE IN ACTION' CONTINUES WITH TWO ALTERNATIVE WORKSHOPS to come together to discuss more the Catholic Social Teaching we have touched on over the six weeks. Dates to keep free for these: Friday 27th October 7.30pm or Friday 3rd November 12.30pm (after Mass).

THIS TUESDAY, RISE THEATRE WILL BE HERE WITH THEIR PLAY ABOUT OSCAR ROMERO: you can still buy a ticket this weekend after Mass (£10/ticket), or on the door. Oscar Romero, was, as Archbishop of San Salvador, highly committed to the cause of the poor, and was eventually martyred by agents of the state. The play tells his life in a powerful way!

May the Lord bless us to keep the poor always in mind and in our 'love in action.' Fr Philip

Preparing for the Eucharistic Congress 2018: John Paul II's Ecclesia de Eucharistia, n. 4:

The hour of our redemption. Although deeply troubled, Jesus does not flee before his "hour." "And what shall I say? 'Father, save me from this hour?' No, for this purpose I have come to this hour." He wanted his disciples to keep him company, yet he had to experience loneliness and abandonment: "So, could you not watch with me one hour? Watch and pray that you may not enter into temptation." Only John would remain at the foot of the Cross, at the side of Mary and the faithful women. The agony in Gethsemane was the introduction to the agony of the Cross on Good Friday. The holy hour, the hour of the redemption of the world.

Whenever the Eucharist is celebrated at the tomb of Jesus in Jerusalem, there is an almost tangible return to his "hour," the hour of his Cross and glorification. Every priest who celebrates Holy Mass, together with the Christian community which takes part in it, is led back in spirit to that place and that hour.
