Year B

FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

22nd FEB 2015

GOSPEL: Mark 1: 12–15

Jesus was tempted by Satan, and the angels looked after him.

My Dear Parishioners of St Augustine's,

THE SEASON OF LENT BEGAN LAST WEDNESDAY, the sun shining beautifully and offsetting, perhaps, the rigour of our fasting and abstinence. We have these six weeks ahead of Lenten preparation, and we must use them well. If you didn't get a purple sheet 'Ideas for Lent 2015' on Ash Wednesday, then please take one today from alongside the Newsletters — I have written it as a guide, or, rather, a starting point, for you to think about your Lenten discipline and devotions. We each need to make a good Lent!

ON THIS FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT, as usual, we hear of Jesus's own testing time in the wilderness for 40 days — the very reason that Lent is forty days long. In this year's account, from St Mark, we only have the short account of this 'retreat' that Jesus underwent, but we know from other Gospels that in those days He showed the devil that He would not be swayed from His divine plan of humility and service. The devil's provocations — tempting Jesus to expressions of power, of greed, and despair — are overcome by Jesus, with the encouragement to us, by almsgiving, fasting, and prayer, to do the same. Let's make sure that at least by today — before Lent is too far gone — that we have made decisions as to how we will keep Lent well. Please, be innovative in the ways you decide! Be ambitious in your intentions; be generous with the Lord and He will be generous to you! Let's not be wishy-washy in our approach to Lent this year, but make sure that we make concrete expressions of our love for God and our love for neighbour.

THANK YOU, ONCE AGAIN, FOR THE 'VOLUNTEERING' EXERCISE that we undertook recently. And thank you for those extra cards that have come in to me in the past week. I have started to analyse the responses and will now communicate in various ways with you regarding the groups which you have offered to support.

May God bless with joy our Lenten weeks of fasting, prayer and almsgiving!

Fr Philip

From Gaudium et Spes, Vatican II on 'The Church in the Modern World,' n. 43:

This council exhorts Christians, as citizens of two cities, to strive to discharge their earthly duties conscientiously and in response to the Gospel spirit. They are mistaken who, knowing that we have here no abiding city but seek one which is to come, think that they may therefore shirk their earthly responsibilities. For they are forgetting that by the faith itself they are more obliged than ever to measure up to these duties, each according to his proper vocation. Nor, on the contrary, are they any less wide of the mark who think that religion consists in acts of worship alone and in the discharge of certain moral obligations, and who imagine they can plunge themselves into earthly affairs in such a way as to imply that these are altogether divorced from the religious life. This split between the faith which many profess and their daily lives deserves to be counted among the more serious errors of our age.
