Year B

SECOND SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

14th JANUARY 2018

GOSPEL: John 1: 35-42

They saw where he lived, and stayed with him.

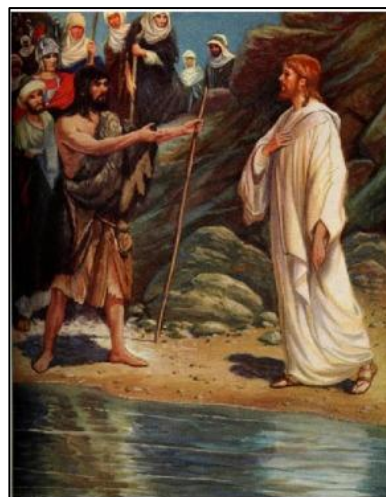

My Dear Parishioners of St Augustine's,

THE CHRISTMAS CRIB IS PUT AWAY, AND THE CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS DOWN ... and although the short, festive season is over, I hope that you all enjoyed your Christmas and New Year and Epiphany celebrations. Many thanks, again, to all those who contributed to the festive spirit here in the parish, Our end-of-season Epiphany party was extremely enjoyable last weekend, so thanks to all who helped make that a success!

ALTHOUGH IT'S 'YEAR B' IN THE SUNDAY LECTIONARY – the year when we mostly hear from the Gospel of Mark – we have a passage today from the Gospel of John, in which John the Baptist points out to his followers Jesus, "the Lamb of God." In an earlier verse, John explains that title, in words that we hear at every single celebration of Mass: "the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world." John's image is drawn from the whole tradition of Jewish Passover ritual, and the various other animal sacrifices for sin offerings made in the Temple at the time. Jesus is to replace all those – He is the new lamb of the new Passover; He is the sacrifice that will truly take away humanity's sins. At the outset of His ministry, with John at the River Jordan, He is proclaimed as this sacrifice. Even as we start to reflect on our Lord's public life, so soon after celebrating His Baptism, we are introduced to the fact that His life will culminate on the Cross, in His sacrificial death: He will give up His life to free us from our sins.

PLEASE NOTE: THE NEXT MEETING OF OUR NEW 'BEFRIENDING GROUP' for contacting the elderly, isolated or lonely of the parish and locality is on Tuesday 16th January in the parish crypt.

May Christ bless us this week as we adore Him as our only Saviour and Lord! Fr Philip "Behold!

The Lamb
of God who takes away
the sin of the world!"

John 1:29

Preparing for the Eucharistic Congress 2018: John Paul II's Ecclesia de Eucharistia, 12:

The Church constantly draws her life from the redeeming sacrifice; she approaches it not only through faith-filled remembrance, but also through a real contact, since this sacrifice is made present ever anew, sacramentally perpetuated, in every community which offers it at the hands of the consecrated minister. The Eucharist thus applies to men and women today the reconciliation won once for all by Christ for mankind in every age. "The sacrifice of Christ and the sacrifice of the Eucharist are one single sacrifice." Saint John Chrysostom put it well: "We always offer the same Lamb, not one today and another tomorrow, but always the same one. For this reason the sacrifice is always only one ... Even now we offer that victim who was once offered and who will never be consumed."
