Year B

FOURTH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

28th JANUARY 2018

GOSPEL: Mark 1: 21-28

He taught them with authority.

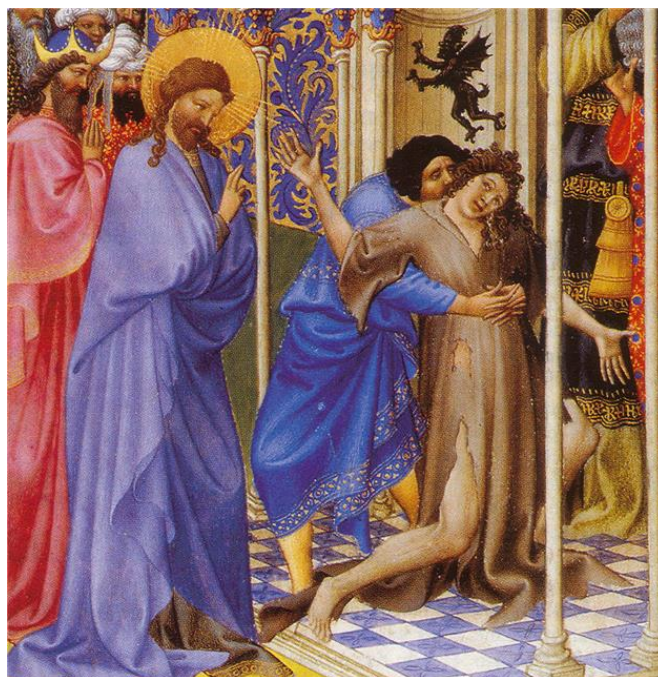

My Dear Parishioners of St Augustine's,

ALONG WITH HIS HEALING MIRACLES, JESUS was also known, early on, for His power over demons and "unclean spirits" – that is, He had the authority to cast out the evil possession that had taken over the lives of some afflicted people. On many occasions Our Lord brought peace and normality back to those whose lives had been blighted by possession.

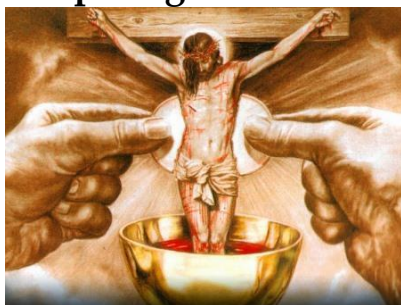

We are reminded by these powerful incidents that we must steer well clear of all those activities that are associated with the demonic. People today, in sadly increasing numbers, turn to all sorts of things that have a pagan or demonic basis, and can end up being seriously troubled by evil activity. As Christians we should be well aware that these are to be avoided categorically, and we should counsel our family members and friends to have nothing to do with them, either.

Obvious examples of things which have a demonic basis and which are forbidden to Christians are: Spiritualism (communing with the dead); consulting mediums or clairvoyants; the use of Tarot cards or Ouija boards; attendance at so-called 'Psychic Nights'; any involvement in Reiki or other New-Age 'healing' activities such as the use of crystals. Some exercise regimes such as Yoga or Tai Chi are also to be avoided, since they are based on manifestly pagan philosophy and uses poses that invoke pagan divinities (Hindu or Buddhist) – instead, go for straightforward exercise regimes such as Pilates that have no spiritualist basis.

May Christ protect us from all harm, and help us to hold firm to what is truly holy! Fr Philip

Preparing for the Eucharistic Congress 2018: John Paul II's Ecclesia de Eucharistia, 14:

Christ's passover includes not only his passion and death, but also his resurrection. This is recalled by the assembly's acclamation following the consecration: "We proclaim your resurrection." The Eucharistic Sacrifice makes present not only the mystery of the Saviour's passion and death, but also the mystery of the resurrection which crowned his sacrifice. It is as the living and risen One that Christ can become in the Eucharist the "bread of life," the "living bread." Saint Ambrose reminded the newly-initiated that the Eucharist applies the event of the resurrection to their lives: "Today Christ is yours, yet each day he rises again for you." Saint Cyril of Alexandria also makes clear that sharing in the sacred mysteries "is a true confession and a remembrance that the Lord died and returned to life for us and on our behalf."

SAINT OF THE WEEK ST JOHN BOSCO

Saint John Bosco, popularly known as 'Don Bosco,' was an Italian priest, educator and writer of the 19th century. While working in Turin, where the population suffered many of the effects of industrialization and urbanization, he dedicated his life to the betterment and education of street children, juvenile delinquents, and other disadvantaged youth. He developed teaching methods based on love rather than punishment, a method that became known as the Salesian Preventive System.

Pray for us, and for our young people!
