Year B TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR 7th OCTOBER 2018

GOSPEL: Mark 10: 2-16

What God has united, man must not divide.

My Dear Parishioners of St Augustine's,

THE WONDERFUL 'HARVEST' DISPLAY IN THE SANCTUARY reminds us that whilst we in this part of the world generally have enough to eat, so many go short and are hungry. I asked you, last week, to consider keeping faithfully the 'Harvest Fast Day' for CaFOD on Friday, and we will take the collection for CaFOD after Masses this Sunday – please be generous. CaFOD will also be one of the 'D.E.C.' agencies involved in the relief effort for the suffering thousands in Indonesia after the devastating earthquake & tsunami.

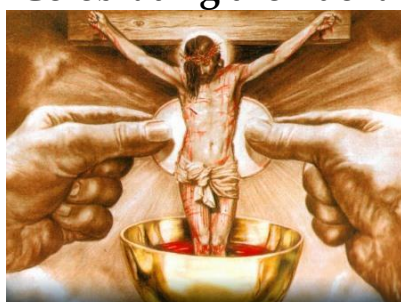

Also, thank you for responding generously with donations of food for the local FoodBank. It was wonderful to see the crates and the table overloaded with gifts of food at the beginning of last week. Do please continue to make this a feature of your shopping in the coming weeks of October as we celebrate Harvest time.

SINCE RECEIVING A COPY AT THE EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS, I have been very much helped by having taken out a subscription to 'Magnificat.' It's a superbly created guide to the liturgy and prayer for every single day, with the lives of the saints and with reflections as well as the daily readings. Many Catholics already use this publication, and I want to make it known to you too. I have put a sample copy in the porch, along with an information page for subscribing to this publication (just £42/year for 13 issues). You can use the sheets to make an order, or you can just go to <http://www.catholicherald.co.uk/magnificat/>.

May the Lord give you the grace at Mass for love of Him and of your neighbour! Fr Philip

Celebrating the Eucharistic Congress 2018: John Paul II's Ecclesia de Eucharistia, 50:

The architectural and mosaic splendours of the Christian East and West are a patrimony belonging to all believers; they contain a hope, and even a pledge, of the desired fullness of communion in faith and in celebration. This would presuppose and demand, as in Rublëv's famous depiction of the Trinity, a profoundly Eucharistic Church in which the presence of the mystery of Christ in the broken bread is as it were immersed in the ineffable unity of the three divine Persons, making of the Church herself an "icon" of the Trinity.
