Year C

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

27th JANUARY 2019

GOSPEL: Luke 1: 1-4, 4: 14-21

This text is being fulfilled today.

My Dear Parishioners of St Augustine's,

THE GOSPEL OF ST LUKE will be the dominant Gospel of this church year, ('Year C') and we hear today, after the opening verses of that Gospel, Luke's account of Our Lord preaching in the synagogue back in Nazareth, at the start of His public ministry.

In His home town, Jesus first startles His hearers with His words of wisdom. He quotes from the prophet Isaiah – a passage that speaks of the Messiah, the One anointed with the Holy Spirit – and then utters those simple, but immortal words: "Today, in your hearing, these words are being fulfilled." With simple directness Our Lord is stating: the One longed for, the promised Messiah, I am He. One can imagine that, as this clear meaning dawned on His hearers, many questions would arise in their hearts! They feel they know Him, ... and yet they don't ...

THE WINTER NIGHT SHELTER – a project of the local 'Churches Together' groups in the Borough of Broxbourne – continues smoothly across the seven host venues. Thank you to all those volunteers involved in our Sunday-night / Monday-morning commitment each week. May the patron saint of homeless people, St Joseph Benedict Labre, pray for our guests and our volunteers in this important project and expression of our Christian charity.

May the Lord Jesus work His will in our lives, and form us also anew!

Fr Philip

St Augustine teaches: Sermon for Catechumens on the Creed, 3:

We believe also in His Son, that is to say, God the Father Almighty's, His Only Son, our Lord. When you hear of the Only Son of God, acknowledge Him God. For it could not be that God's Only Son should not be God. What He is, the same did He beget, though He is not that Person Whom He begot. If He be truly Son, He is that which the Father is; if He be not that which the Father is, He is not truly Son. Observe mortal and earthly creatures: what each is, that it engenders. Man begets not an ox, sheep begets not dog, nor dog sheep. Whatever it be that begets, that which it is, it begets. Hold ye therefore boldly, firmly, faithfully, that the Begotten of God the Father is what Himself is, Almighty.

... You know, that when I pronounced to you the Creed, so I said, and so you are bounden to believe; that we believe in God the Father Almighty, and in Jesus Christ His Only Son. Here too, when you believe that He is the Only, believe Him Almighty: for it is not to be thought that God the Father does what He will, and God the Son does not what He will. One Will of Father and Son, because one Nature. For it is impossible for the will of the Son to be any whit parted from the Father's will. God and God; both one God: Almighty and Almighty; both One Almighty.

SAINT OF THE WEEK ST JOHN BOSCO

Saint John Bosco, popularly known as ‘Don Bosco,’ was an Italian priest, educator and writer of the 19th century. While working in Turin, where the population suffered many of the effects of industrialization and urbanization, he dedicated his life to the betterment and education of street children, juvenile delinquents, and other disadvantaged youth. He developed teaching methods based on love rather than punishment, a method that became known as the Salesian Preventive System.
