SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

17th MARCH 2019

GOSPEL: Luke 9: 28-36

As Jesus prayed, the aspect of his face changed.

My Dear Parishioners of St Augustine's,

ON THE SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT we hear of the event of the Transfiguration of Jesus on the mountain, a truly remarkable occasion on which Our Lord let His divinity be glimpsed by the three closest apostles. In the context of our Lenten journey, it provides us with a reminder of the glory of Jesus as the Son of God, a glory that will be seen definitively at the end of Lent when we celebrate His Rising from the dead. For the apostles who were present, it was a light by which they could navigate the horrors of Jesus's forthcoming Passion; for us it's a light to guide us through Lent, towards the radiant light of Jesus's Easter glory.

LAST WEEK'S INSERTED SHEET, 'IDEAS FOR LENT 2019' lists some suggestions for participating in Lent by way of Prayer, Fasting and Almsgiving, along with the Sacrament of Confession. If you didn't get this purple sheet last weekend, please make sure that you pick one up today.

THE NEW TAX YEAR, APPROACHING, means that it's time for you to collect your set of Offertory envelopes from the table with the envelopes is in the church porch. The parish Finances for 2018 (on the blue board) showed that we did some important work last year, but which was expensive, so I do urge you to be generous in the coming year with your Offertory giving. If you would like to start using Offertory envelopes – or, ideally, if you would like to take out a Standing Order to the parish, and if you can sign a gift-aid declaration (so we can claim back 25% extra on your giving, from the Inland Revenue) – then please speak to a Finance-Committee member available for you in the church porch alongside the table of envelopes.

May the Lord Jesus – showing us His divinity – guide us by His light this Lent! Fr Philip

St Augustine teaches: Sermon for Catechumens on the Creed, 8:

[The Son of God] was begotten before all times, before all worlds. "Begotten before." Before what, He in Whom is no before? Do not in the least imagine any time before that Nativity of Christ whereby He was begotten of the Father; of that Nativity I am speaking by which He is Son of God Almighty, His Only Son our Lord; of that am I first speaking. Do not imagine in this Nativity a beginning of time; do not imagine any space of eternity in which the Father was and the Son was not. Since when the Father was, since then the Son. And what is that "since," where is no beginning? Therefore ever Father without beginning, ever Son without beginning. And how, you will say, was He begotten, if He have no beginning? Of eternal, coeternal. At no time was the Father, and the Son not, and yet Son of Father was begotten.
