Year C

SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

2nd JUNE 2019

GOSPEL: John 17: 20-26

May they be completely one.

My Dear Parishioners of St Augustine's,

THIS SEVENTH AND LAST WEEK OF EASTERTIDE we are spending as days of prayer between the great feasts of Ascension Thursday and Pentecost Sunday. These are days when, as the Acts of the Apostles had it, "they went to the Upper Room where they were staying ... All these [apostles] joined in continuous prayer, together with several women including Mary the Mother of Jesus, and with His kinsmen." Our Lord Jesus had prayed, at the Last Supper, that "they be completely one," and here, in this 'retreat' time at a crucial moment for the Church, they are united in prayer, and under the mantle of protection of the Blessed Mother.

... All these [apostles] joined in continuous prayer, together with several women including Mary the Mother of Jesus, and with His kinsmen." Our Lord Jesus had prayed, at the Last Supper, that "they be completely one," and here, in this 'retreat' time at a crucial moment for the Church, they are united in prayer, and under the mantle of protection of the Blessed Mother.

IN THE GOSPEL OF THIS SUNDAY, then, we hear Our Lord praying to the Father for this unity of the Church, for He knew that the unity of the Mission of the Apostles would be one of its greatest strengths, and a sign of its credibility. So, He urged on them "that they be one." Our Blessed Mother, Mary, has always been a part of that unity, and a unifying force, with her maternal spiritual instinct of 'keeping together.' So, as we both end the Marian month of May, and look forward to next Sunday's joyful celebration of Pentecost, let us keep some days of special prayer for the gifts of the Spirit, knowing that Our Lady joins her prayers to ours.

I THANK ALL THE PARISHIONERS WHO HAD EXTRA ROLES AND DUTIES to cover whilst I was away on the Poland pilgrimage. I acknowledge with gratitude all that you did to keep the parish's liturgy and other life running smoothly in my absence.

May the ascending Jesus draw our gaze to heaven so we may long to be with Him! Fr Philip

St Augustine teaches: *On Patience, 1

Ineffable is therefore that patience [of God], as is His jealousy, as His wrath, and whatever there is like to these. For if we conceive of these as they be in us, in Him are there none. We, namely, can feel none of these without molestation: but be it far from us to surmise that the impassible nature of God is liable to any molestation. But like as He is jealous without any darkening of spirit, angry without any perturbation, pitiful without any pain, repents Himself without any wrongness in Him to be set right; so is He patient without anything of passion. Now therefore as concerning human patience, which we are able to conceive and beholden to have, of what sort it is, I will, as God grants and the brevity of the present discourse allows, essay to set forth.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

WORLD-COMMUNICATIONS-DAY PRAYER

Lord, make us instruments of your peace.
Help us to recognize the evil latent in a communication that does not build communion.
Help us to remove the venom from our judgements.
Help us to speak about others as our brothers and sisters.
You are faithful and trustworthy; may our words be seeds of goodness for the world:
Where there is shouting, let us practise listening;
Where there is confusion, let us inspire harmony;
Where there is ambiguity, let us bring clarity;
Where there is exclusion, let us offer solidarity;
Where there is sensationalism, let us use sobriety;
Where there is superficiality, let us raise real questions;
Where there is prejudice, let us awaken trust;
Where there is hostility, let us bring respect;
Where there is falsehood, let us bring truth.
Amen.
