Year A

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

1st DECEMBER 2019

GOSPEL: Matthew 24: 37-44

Stay awake so that you may be ready.

My Dear Parishioners of St Augustine's,

ADVENT, AND THE NEW CHURCH YEAR, BEGINS TODAY. It is a precious and beautiful season, so do not allow it to get swallowed up into some sort of a 'greater Christmas.' The value of Advent longing and waiting – in praying for Christ to come – echoes wonderfully the long centuries of waiting for the Messiah that the Jewish people experienced, from the 8th-c.-BC prophet Isaiah right through to Our Lord's appearing in the 1st c. AD. Let's prepare our hearts for His coming!

THE NEW CHURCH YEAR brings with it a change in the Gospel that we hear on Sundays: we move to Year 'A' (the year of Matthew). 2019-20 is also being celebrated as a 'Year of the Word,' so I am going to use my Advent Sundays' homilies on helping you know more about Scripture itself. The Sunday readings are so rich in the Advent season, especially with the prophecies of Isaiah, so it will be good to explore these at some length, starting this weekend.

THE ANNUAL PARISH PRE-CHRISTMAS FAIR – named after the late parishioner who championed it, Milly Yarwood – takes place this weekend after Sat eve / Sunday Masses. Please come down and enjoy the charity fair, for festive refreshments, Christmas cards and much more. Additionally, this year, we have some beautiful 'sculpted' candles for sale, which were left to us as a legacy by the family of a long-standing parishioner who died recently – they would make ideal Christmas decorations.

May the prayerful waiting of Advent fill us with the peace of Christian hope.

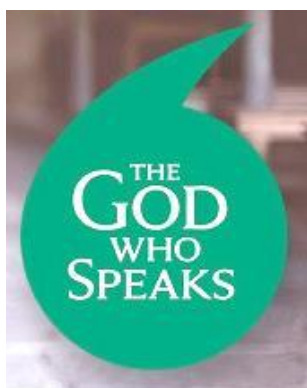

Fr Philip

2019/20 Year of the Word: Pope Benedict XVI, Verbum Domini, n. 7

While the Christ event is at the heart of divine revelation, we also need to realize that creation itself, the liber naturae, is an essential part of this symphony of many voices in which the one word is spoken. We also profess our faith that God has spoken his word in salvation history; he has made his voice heard; by the power of his Spirit "he has spoken through the prophets." God's word is thus spoken throughout the history of salvation, and most fully in the mystery of the incarnation, death and resurrection of the Son of God. Then too, the word of God is that word preached by the Apostles in obedience to the command of the Risen Jesus: "Go into all the world and preach the Gospel to the whole creation." The word of God is thus handed on in the Church's living Tradition. Finally, the word of God, attested and divinely inspired, is sacred Scripture, the Old and New Testaments. All this helps us to see that, while in the Church we greatly venerate the sacred Scriptures, the Christian faith is not a "religion of the book": Christianity is the "religion of the word of God", not of "a written and mute word, but of the incarnate and living Word." Consequently the Scripture is to be proclaimed, heard, read, received and experienced as the word of God, in the stream of the apostolic Tradition from which it is inseparable.
