Year A

SIXTH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

16th FEBRUARY 2020

GOSPEL: Matthew 5: 17-37

You have learnt how it was said to our ancestors; but I say this to you.

My Dear Parishioners of St Augustine's,

CARDINAL VINCENT HAS WRITTEN A PASTORAL LETTER THIS WEEKEND drawing our attention to the forthcoming re-dedication of our land to Our Lady, under the devotion, 'the Dowry of Mary.' The day of re-dedication will be Sunday 29th March, and we will take time that weekend at Mass to do just that. Prior to that, there will be occasions to visit Westminster Cathedral, especially during the 'Dowry Tour' dates 19th to 21st March. Further information regarding a chance to go up together from the parish available soon. In the meantime you might like to read this fascinating article which gives the background and history to the strong devotion to Our Lady in England, much of which is tied up with the historic shrine of Walsingham: <https://rcdow.org.uk/news/england-is-marys-dowry-a-new-dedication-for-today/>

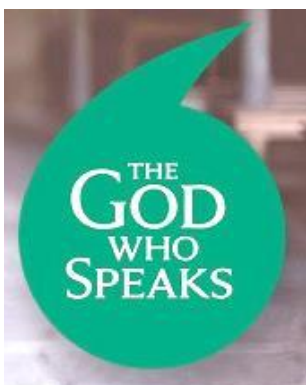

TODAY'S GOSPEL PASSAGE FROM THE 'SERMON ON THE MOUNT' is a substantial set of teachings from Christ in which He re-iterates, and deepens, the 10 Commandments which have come down to us from the Lord right back in the days of Moses. Jesus encourages us to reconsider, and reflect more deeply on, our keeping of the Commandments, so that we do not just keep them in a minimal way, but are drawn to keep them more broadly. Hence, for example, it is not just 'killing' that we are forbidden by God's Law to commit, but also acting violently, or angrily, or speaking harshly. Thus, Our Lord truly challenges us in this teaching for our day-to-day life.

Let us hear the words of Christ in His sacred teaching and be blessed in His name! Fr Philip

2019/20 Year of the Word: Pope Benedict XVI, Verbum Domini, n. 14

The Church gives voice to her awareness that with Jesus Christ she stands before the definitive word of God: he is "the first and the last." He has given creation and history their definitive meaning; and hence we are called to live in time and in God's creation within this eschatological rhythm of the word; "thus the Christian dispensation, since it is the new and definitive covenant, will never pass away; and no new public revelation is to be expected before the glorious manifestation of our Lord Jesus Christ." ...

The "uniqueness of Christianity is manifested in the event which is Jesus Christ, the culmination of revelation, the fulfilment of God's promises and the mediator of the encounter between man and God. He who 'has made God known' is the one, definitive word given to mankind."
