+ DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY (Year B)

8th April 2018

At this time of the year we are reminded in a special way that as Redeemed human beings through the blood of the Lamb, we are called to follow the ways of Jesus our Saviour. HIS WAY IS THE WAY OF SERVICE. Throughout the year people continue to offer themselves to make the parish such a great place to be. The humble service of the ushers, cleaners, flower arrangers, music groups, extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist, altar servers, those in the sacristy, the repository, those who took part in the Live Way of the Cross, parish council, proclaim team, Natalie, Jane, Colette with the catechists, UCM, prayer groups, chaplaincies and so the list goes on. So many people co-operated in the preparation and celebration of the Holy Week ceremonies. The thanks of the parish is due to EVERYONE who helped to give us all a joyful and dignified experience of the liturgy. Today we go forward to continue singing our song: "We are an Easter people and ALLELUIA is our song."

THE DIVINE MERCY FEAST - TODAY. The service starts at 2pm – Mass, Mercy Rosary & Veneration. All are welcome.
