Second Sunday of the Year Thought for the day

It is good to stop from time to time and ask myself, what am I looking for? This can be answered in the ideal: "what do I think I should be looking for?" or in the real: "what do I actually want as evidenced by my choices and actions?" To move from one to the other we need the grace of dissatisfaction. In the words of Augustine, "You must be dissatisfied with the way you are now, if you ever want to get to where you are not yet." (Sermon 169)
