FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

The fourth Sunday of Lent is called Laetare Sunday. It reminds us to find joy and hope in anticipation of Easter, despite the Lenten sacrifices we make. The readings and Gospel inspire us to reflect on the causes of our captivity and to be thankful for the grace that saves us. We are reminded of the necessity of being born from above and the salvation that comes through Jesus' Resurrection. John's reflection inspires us to acknowledge our sins, seek forgiveness, and find solace in the Good News of our faith. Let us embrace this season of Lent, rejoice in the hope of Easter, and be confident in the grace and forgiveness of Jesus.
