WEEKDAY MASSES ARE HELD IN ST HILDA

‘The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light.

Our readings deliver a promise of hope, joy and light to those living in darkness. The prophet Isaiah reflects on how the Lord brought hope and unity to places of profound and enduring conflict. The joy his love brings is abundant and contagious. The themes of light and salvation underpin Psalm 27 where we’re assured if we remain fixed on the Lord, we have nothing to fear. Paul echoes this message to the community in Corinth. He urges them to address divisive hierarchies and cliques which have emerged and reminds them God invites every person to be united in his love. In the Gospel, Matthew recounts the beginning of Jesus’s ministry and the appointment of his first disciples. We witness the simplicity of his methods. Jesus meets us in the ordinary circumstances of our lives where he sees and values us for who we really are. He invites us to abandon old habits and ways weighing us down so we can truly follow him. We ask for God’s grace and guidance to celebrate and reconcile our differences so we may share in his abundant love. Prego & Fr Jimmy
