2ND SUNDAY OF LENT

NEWSLETTER

Jesus the Beautiful One

I believe that what you desire will be given to me by him who promised he would not delude the wish of whoever desires what is good. My right hand is not able to describe in figures the One who represents all form. Take away everything from before you, that he who is hidden within everything might be found alone in your vision. Blessed is the one from before whose view earth, has been taken away, and in the Father of his soul for its duality, there will be a journey in simplicity.

O mystery, wonder makes marvellers of those who walk in the light of the Lord in a clear and beautiful place! Where has everything gone from before me so that only the Lord of all is visible? Where I am I do not know, because my heart is ravished by the beauty of the Beautiful One.

Blessed is the one who embraces you and even when asleep inhales your sweet fragrance. Blessed is the one who sits and watches your splendours united to him like the sun's rays to its sphere. Blessed is the one who sees his food changed into your likeness, who tastes it with his palate and it is changed into the delight of your sweetness. Blessed is the one who sees you mingled with his drink and he drinks and his heart exults in your favour. Blessed is the one who enters within himself and sees you in a wonderful vision and he marvels at the beauty of your wondrous mysteries which spring up from within him.

DAZZLING WHITE

In the Gospels of Matthew and Luke, we are reminded that our Lord's face and his clothing was transfigured. However, in Mark's Gospel, the concentration is on the clothing 'his clothing became dazzling white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach them.' If we take a moment and compare the case with Moses, Mark's focal point becomes clear.

On Mount Sinai, Moses' face was bathed in light, but no mention of his clothes. Indeed, he covers his countenance with a veil. A piece of fabric which is strong enough to subtle the passing, the reflected glory which the people couldn't bear. In contrast, the Body of Christ, not only his face shines- shines with such power that even the veil is imbued with light. One might ask what is happening?

Many a commentator has said, 'this is the image of the totus Christus, the full Christ, head, and members, which is to say, the Church divinized in glory, enveloped in light. On Mount Tabor, we see a glimpse not only of our Lord' glory but ours too. No one could fabricate such a white. 'He made her clean by washing her in water with a form of words, so that when he took her to himself she would be glorious, with no speck or wrinkle or anything like that, but holy and fault-less' (Eph 5: 26-27), this is the New Jerusalem, 'I saw the holy city, and the new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, as beautiful as a bride all dressed for her husband' (Rev 21: 2). In Jeremiah, we read, 'Should you launder yourself with potash and put in quantities of lye, I should still detect the stain of your guilt-it is the Lord who speaks' (Jer 2:22).

Today you and I behold the divine detergent, who could wash us skilfully of our sins.

PLANNED GIVING DRIVE

You will be given a newsletter titled 'Our Call to Stewardship'- please could I ask you to read this carefully.

Next week members of our Parish Finance Committee will speak to you in more detail about our parish finances in the context of our parish vision and if you wish to be involved, to tell you how best to do this.

Finally, in two weeks time, we will ask you all to renew your financial and volunteering commitment to the parish. This pledge will not bind you, but it allows the parish to plan ahead for the future in confidence.

Volunteers and members of the Parish Finance Committee are available at the back of the Church, after Mass to answer any questions you might have.

Once again I take this opportunity to thank all of you for all that you do here in the parish. it's very much appreciated. May God bless you all.

LENTEN ALMS

In light of Cardinal's Lenten Appeal to help prisoners and to help them with training opportunities and employment and to support those who are marginalised. To help expand the Catholic marriage counselling programmes, therefore, the Cardinal's Lenten Appeal will be our Lenten project. You would have noticed a box in front of the altar where you could place your generous contribution or alternatively collect an envelope on your way out and place your contribution and return it back into the box, and the monies raised will go directly to the Appeal. Once again I cannot thank you enough for your generosity and all that you do here. May God bless you all and may you have a prayerful Lent.

Fr Christopher

DURING LENT

During Lent, we will be saying the Apostles Creed and from Lent until Pentecost at the end of our Bidding Prayers we will be saying the Hail Holy Queen.

Stations of The Cross

During Lent, we shall be having the Stations of the Cross every Friday at 7pm.

We are still looking for a volunteer who is interested in leading Stations of the Cross on Friday, 9th of March. If you are this person, call the office and give your namet o Katherine. Thank you.

RITE OF ELECTION AND FIRST SCRUTINY

On Sunday the Diocese celebrated the Rite of Election, our catechumens were named by our Cardinal as members of the Elect—those chosen by God for baptism—and we pray for our candidates' continued growth in the Spirit. We journeyed to the Cathedral to celebrate the Rite of Election (of the catechumens – those preparing for baptism) and the Call to Continuing Conversion (of the candidates – those who are baptised but have not celebrated the sacraments of confirmation and eucharist) with Cardinal Vincent.

Following on from the Rite of Election, the community will celebrate the Scrutinies on the third, fourth and fifth Sundays of Lent with those who will be baptised at Easter. These take place during the 11am Sunday Mass. They are meant to uncover, then heal all that is weak, defective, or sinful in the hearts of the elect; to bring out, then strengthen all that is upright, strong and good. In the rite of exorcism, the elect are freed from the effects of sin and from the influence of the devil. They receive new strength in the midst of their spiritual journey and they open their hearts to receive the gifts of the Saviour. During the second and third scrutinies respectively, the catechumens will be presented with the Lord's Prayer and the Creed. Let us pray for the elect in our parish and with them as they journey towards Easter.
