THE GREAT COMMANDMENT

One might say the great joy that draws us closer to God, and is pleasing to him is love. We might be surprised, and it may fill us with joy, that the quality of love is its tenderness.

We see this expressed so well, in the Old Testament: 'Encourage me to walk in your truth and teach me since you are the God who saves me' (Ps 24:5). And again, 'You will be suckled, carried on her hip and fondled in her lap. As a mother comforts her child, so I shall comfort you; you will be comforted in Jerusalem' (Is 66:13). In Hosea, we read, 'Yes, I shall betroth you to myself in loyalty and in the knowledge of Yahweh. When that day comes. When that day comes, I shall respond, declares Yahweh' (Hos2:22). In the same passage, we read, 'I shall betroth you to myself forever, I shall betroth you to myself in loyalty and in the knowledge of Yahweh' (Hos2: 21).

We are given assurance and confidence that our love is not without value in the sight of God; that we can please him and he patiently awaits our love in response to his; 'I shall no longer call you servants because a servant does not know his master's business; I call you friends, because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father' (Jn 15: 15).

We all have a longing to comprehend God's charity, but we have a sadness due to our egotism which makes it impossible for us to share it fully in this world.

Love in Action

Community & Participation (our final topic in the series)

Writing to the Romans, Paul says, 'Just as each of our bodies has several parts and each part has a separate, function, so all of us, in union with Christ, form one body, and as parts of it, we belong to each other. Our gifts differ according to the grace given us. If your gift is prophecy, then use it as your faith suggests; if administration, then use it for administration; if teaching, then use it for teaching. Let the preachers deliver sermons, the almsgivers give freely, the officials be diligent, and those who do works of mercy do them cheerfully (Romans 12: 4-12).

Once again, to remind you all to refer back to the flyers and prayer cards handed out to you; go through them this coming week in preparation for the Workshop on the 11th November in the School Hall. Immediately, after the 11 am Mass, Teas and Coffees will be served by the Confirmation Candidates. The workshop will be lead by representatives of Caritas Westminster. I also encourage our young people to attend and give their input.

SICK &amp; RETIRED PRIEST'S FUND

Next weekend ( 10th & 11th ) we will be having our annual collection for our sick and retired priests of our diocese. We have all been touched by our priests and grateful for having known them. They have been here for us and now let's help them with our generous donation. The Fund can then help cover the medical, housing, convalescence, and personal needs of the sick & retired priests. May I take this opportunity to thank each and everyone for your generosity each year giving to the Fund, it's much appreciated. As you leave after Mass, donation envelopes will be given out; place your donation and bring it next weekend where there will be a second collection. May God bless you all.

Prayer for Peace*TO MARY, THE LIGHT OF HOPE

Immaculate Heart of Mary, help us to conquer the menace of evil, which so easily takes root in the hearts of the people today, and whose immeasurable effects already weigh down upon our modern world and seem to block the paths toward the future.

From famine and war, deliver us.

From nuclear war, from incalculable self-destruction, from every kind of war, deliver us.

From sins against human life from its very beginning, deliver us.

From hatred and from the demeaning of the dignity of the children of God, deliver us.

From every kind of injustice in the life of society, both national and international, deliver us.

From readiness to trample on the commandments of God, deliver us.

From attempts to stifle in human hearts the very truth of God, deliver us.

From the loss of awareness of good and evil, deliver us.

From the sins against the Holy Spirit, deliver us.

Accept, O Mother of Christ,

this cry laden with sufferings of all individual human beings, laden with the sufferings of whole societies.

Help us with the power of the Holy Spirit conquer all sin: individual sin and the 'sin of the world,' sin in all its manifestations.

Let there be revealed once more in the history of the world that infinite saving power of the redemption:

the power of merciful love.

May it put a stop to evil. May it transform consciences.

May your Immaculate Heart reveal for all the light of hope. Amen

The Joy of a Full Soup-Drawer

Hi, I have been helping out at the local Island Gardens Foodbank for the last three and a half years. You will have seen the adverts on the notice board and the collection boxes under the table. We give food and help to about twenty to twenty-five people every week from the E14 area. These are not always the same people, as many only visit for a short while.

We help them with more than just food. The biggest problem for visitors is that their poverty and desperation cuts them off from family and friends. There is no-one to talk to and they become isolated and alone in one of the most crowded cities in the country. Without the foodbank, people would not just go hungry, they would truly despair.

Thanks to the generosity of a great many people, including many schools in the area, we now have more than 500 tins of soup. Each tin is a prayer of unconditional love offered by a family or a person to a total stranger. It tells a very lonely and sad stranger that the world still cares, that they still matter and are not forgotten. There is still reason for them to hope.

I worry when the soup drawer begins to look empty, but the Lord has made sure the soup-drawer has never run-out. Soup is as much a staple as the daily bread we so often pray for. The foodbank would collapse without soup to offer guests every week. This is why I wanted to express my personal gratitude to so many people and families without whom we could not function.

If you would like to like to help others, then donate basic food items like tins of fruit, vegetables, and litre cartons of long-life milk. Families often prefer whole milk for their children. Alternately, we are currently advertising for volunteers on the parish notice-board. You can always be one of those volunteers for about three hours every Tuesday. My thanks, Paul Marlow.

LOVE IN ACTION

These past five weeks we have looked at Catholic Social Teaching.

The topics we covered:

Week One: Dignity ( The main thread and, in a certain sense, the guiding principle...of all of the church's social doctrine, is a correct view of the human person and of their unique value' St John Paul II)

Week Two: Solidarity and Peace ( Solidarity, is not a feeling of vague compassion...it is a firm and persevering determination to commit oneself...to the good of all and of each individual because we are all really responsible for all'. St John Paul II)

Week Three: Preferential Option For the Poor: ( Our Faith in Christ, who became poor, and was always close to the poor and the outcast, is the basis of our concern for the integral development of society's most neglected members' ( Pope Francis, Joy of the Gospel)

Week Four: Care of Creation: ( The book of Genesis tells us that God created man and woman entrusting them with the task of filling the earth and subduing it, which does not mean exploiting it, but nurturing and protecting it, caring for it through their work' Pope Francis)

Week Five: The Dignity and rights of Workers (There is no worse material poverty...than the poverty which prevents people from earning their bread and deprives them of the dignity of work' Pope Francis)

Week Sixth: Community and Participation. Fr. Christopher
