5th SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIMESalt and Light

The path to leadership is a difficult one. A true leader is committed to a cause or goal. They would sacrifice their time, talent and we do have some examples such as Nelson Mandela. Such leaders gather many followers. Such followers become leaders when they make a commitment and the easy way becomes difficult. For our Lord, followers were those who took the hard road, who sacrificed for the Kingdom and they would be salt of the earth and light to the world.

Salt has various uses; used for seasoning, to preserve food. The disciples are called to preserve faith and be the light through their evangelization. Evangelization was a means to communicate God's blessings to the people and even the land would benefit. Our Lord is informing his disciples and those who follow him cannot have their cake and eat it. One cannot be a believing Christian, and act as though faith didn't matter. For faith leads to action and action points to the Kingdom.

Our Lord as a priest offered a sacrificial love to the Father. We might ask ourselves, what sacrifice of love do I offer to the Father? We could offer our married life, family, work, single, our outreach to others, and our social life together with our prayers, difficulties, and sufferings to God. We could offer them at any time but the best time is at Mass when we offer ourselves with our Lord to the Father.

Our Lord as a prophet proclaimed the Good News of salvation. God calls us to evangelize by our word and example. We witness most effectively when others see the difference our Lord has made in our lives. The most credible way of our witness lies in our ability to 'get out of God's way' and allow him the room to work through us.

Our Lord was King who became a servant of all through his self-giving. We are called to give ourselves so our places of work and our homes we might be more humane. We are called by our Lord to serve in our parishes so that we would grow in faith and become more alive. So we integrate our Christian faith into our daily lives and our service becomes His service to others. God calls us to worship, to witness, and to give.

Who inspired you to live as a Christian? What have they done to inspire you?

What can you do today to be a good Christian example for others?

The Fatima Prayers

Mary gave the children this prayer, as well as the Fatima Prayer/Decade Prayer, on June 13th, 1917. The prayer is meant to be recited when you are offering up suffering to God.

The apparition of an angel and Our Lady to three poor children in Fatima, Portugal in the early 20th century is one of the most famous miracles in the Catholic world.

The children received many messages, mostly calling for personal conversion and prayer, as well as the words of 5 new prayers. The first prayer is one many Catholics are likely already familiar with, but the other 4 are not as well-known. Here are the 5 prayers given to the children at Fatima: (go to the next page)

You are the light of the world?

The Church was founded for the purpose of spreading the Kingdom of Christ throughout the earth for the glory of God the Father, to enable all men to share in his saving redemption and that through them the whole world might enter into a relationship with Christ. In the Church, there is a diversity of ministry but a oneness of mission. Christ conferred on the Apostles and their successors the duty of teaching, sanctifying and ruling in his name and power. But the laity likewise share in the priestly, prophetic and royal office of Christ and therefore have their own share in the mission of the whole people of God in the Church and in the world.

They exercise the apostolate in fact by their activity directed to the evangelisation and sanctification of men and to the penetrating and perfecting of the temporal order through the spirit of the Gospel. In this way, their temporal activity openly bears witness to Christ and promotes the salvation of men. Since the laity in accordance with their state of life, live in the midst of the world and its concerns, they are called by God to exercise their apostolate in the world like leaven, the ardour of the spirit of Christ.

The laity derive the right and duty to the apostolate from their union with Christ the head; incorporated into Christ's Mystical Body through baptism and strengthened by the power of the Holy Spirit through Confirmation, they are assigned to the apostolate by the Lord himself not only that they may offer spiritual sacrifices in everything they do but also that they may witness to Christ throughout the world. The sacraments, especially the most Holy Eucharist, communicate and nourish that charity which is the soul of the entire apostolate.

Such a life requires a continual exercise of faith, hope, and charity. Only by the light of faith and by meditation on the word of God can one always and everywhere recognise God, in whom we live, and move, and exist (Acts 17:28) The very testimony of their Christian life and good works done in a supernatural spirit have the power to draw men to belief and to God; for the Lord says, your light must shine in the sight of men, so that, seeing your good works, they may give the praise to your Father in heaven.

Apostolicam Actuositatem (From the Decree on the Apostolate of the Laity)

1) THE FATIMA PRAYER/DECADE PRAYER "O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell, lead all souls to Heaven, especially those most in need of Thy mercy. Amen." Mary told the children that people should add this prayer to the end of each decade of the Rosary.

2) THE PARDON PRAYER "My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love Thee! I beg pardon for all those that do not believe, do not adore, do not hope and do not love Thee." This prayer was given to the children by the angel that visited them in 1916, the year before Mary appeared to them..

3) THE ANGEL'S PRAYER "O Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, I adore Thee profoundly. I offer Thee the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ present in all the tabernacles of the world, in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifferences by which He is offended. By the infinite merits of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary I beg the conversion of poor sinners." This is another prayer given to them by the angel. There was a Eucharistic host and chalice suspended in the air, and the angel led them in kneeling before it and praying this prayer.

4) THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER "Most Holy Trinity, I adore Thee! My God, my God, I love Thee in the Most Blessed Sacrament." When Mary appeared to the children for the first time on May 13, 1917, she said, "You will have much to suffer, but the grace of God will be your comfort." According to Lucia, one of the children, a bright light shone all around them, and without thinking about it, they all started reciting this prayer.

5) THE SACRIFICE PRAYER "O Jesus, it is for the love of Thee, in reparation for the offenses committed against the Immaculate Heart of Mary, and for the conversion of poor sinners [that I do this]."

So get praying!
