16TH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY*Invited to 'Come Away' with him*

Christ is alive! We need to keep reminding ourselves of this, because we can risk seeing Jesus Christ simply as a fine model from the distant past, as a memory, as someone who saved us two thousand years ago. But that would be of no use to us; it would leave us unchanged; it would not set us free. The one who fills us with his grace, the one who liberates us, transforms us, heals, and consoles us is someone fully alive. He is the Christ, risen from the dead, filled with supernatural life and energy, and robed in boundless light. That is why Saint Paul could say: If Christ has not been raised, you are still in your sins.

Alive, he can be present in your life at every moment, to fill it with light and to take away all sorrow, and solitude. Even if all others depart, he will remain, as he promised: I am with you always: yes, to the end of time. Because he lives, there can be no doubt that goodness will have the upper hand in your life and that all our struggles will prove worthwhile. If this is the case, we can stop complaining and look to the future, for with him this always possible. That is the certainty we have; Jesus is eternally alive. If we hold fast to him, we will have life, and be protected from the threats of death and violence that may assail us in life. Every other solution will prove inadequate and temporary. It may be helpful for a time, but once again we will find ourselves exposed and abandoned before the storms of life.

With Jesus, on the other hand, our hearts experience a security that is firmly rooted and enduring. Saint Paul says that he wishes to be one with Christ in order to know [him] and the power of his resurrection. That power will constantly be revealed in your lives too, for he came to give you life, and have it to the full. If in your heart you can learn to appreciate the beauty of this message, if you are willing to encounter the Lord, if you are willing to let him and start to talk to him, the living Christ, about the realities of your life, then you will have a profound experience capable of sustaining your entire Christian life.

*Pope FrancisMark 6: 30-34

Reading the Gospel reminded me how much Jesus loves me, and he invites me to come away and rest awhile. It would be helpful if I could go to a 'deserted place' to allow my soul to recharge itself. Or as T. S Eliot said, 'I have the experience of God's action in my life, but miss its meaning because I don't give time for reflection.

Each time I excuse myself by saying 'I am far too busy to get away' Each day reading the scriptures restores me to what really matters. I shall not regret the time I give to this daily encounter with God.

There are times Jesus I want to get away from the crowds, and at other times I wish someone knew that I exist; I might have too much aloneness. If I could reach out to you in prayer when I say the daily office, and know that you are near than my own thoughts. I feel at peace just as the apostles might have felt.

*The Pope speaks to his people ***

Please let us pray !!!

Some revelation from the Most High must have had Pope Francis!

The Pope asks priests to open the doors of their churches and invite the people to pray the Holy Rosary and pray intensely before the Tabernacle. He asks us to go to our nearest parishes or Church.

He alerted the world saying: "Wars, famines, are latent; the evil one is among us ... To stop his plans, we must pray to God to pour out his Mercy on the world and that the Holy Spirit enlighten the rulers to be aware of good and evil and fight together for peace and love. "

He also asks priests that the Eucharist be simple and loving.

Pray, pray, pray. "We will all unite in prayer every day. Wherever you are in the world, at your preferred time, drop everything and pray 3 times the Our Father and 3 Hail Mary.

Prayer for God to send his Holy Spirit on earth.

Psalm 23; The Lord is my shepherd

A few years back, I used to visit a parishioner in a home by the name of Jack. I would give him communion, once he had received and consumed the Host, he would say, ' The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose. Near restful waters he leads me, to revive my dropping spirit'.

I always look forward to my weekly visits to him and hear him repeating the first verse. Jack understood, that Jesus is where true rest and blessings are to be found, and he leads him there. Jack also knew that Jesus refreshes, and brings him peace and goodness. Though life is uncertain, Jack was ill and in pain, but he was assured no matter what Jesus holds all power over death and disease walks with him. Jack's faith helped him to acknowledge that Jesus was the One who took Jack by the hand through his darkest moments, bringing him healing from the pain he was in and take him to the glory that he has reserved for Jack.

Jack often would say to me, 'My table is ready, Fr. Chris, I am not afraid'. it's wonderful, Jack knew, that Jesus wants him to be near him. Throughout history, the host protected their guests and hear Jack was aware that Jesus was protecting him and that His protection was real, in the midst of the traps, attacks from the enemy, Jack found refuge in His great care. it doesn't mean that we won't face battles, but Jesus covers us with His Spirit of anointing, to live our days with His strength and blessings. This is what Jack knew each time he said, that first verse after he received communion.

We can be assured that Jesus looks for us, and has done so throughout our days as he continues to do in mine with his love. Even at the end of our days here on earth, Jesus still has more in store, and it's greater than anything we could ever imagine.

Fr. Christopher

I have felt your closeness and the support of your prayers. Thank you from the bottom of my heart!... Let us remember that, in the protocol of the final judgment – Matthew 25 – one of the things they will ask us will be about closeness to the sick. In these days of being hospitalized, I have experienced once again how important good health care is, accessible to all, as it is in Italy and in other countries... And let us pray for all the sick... Accompany them with prayer, especially for those in the most difficult conditions: may no one be left alone, may everyone receive the anointing of listening, closeness, tenderness and care. Let us ask this through the intercession of Mary, our Mother, Health of the Sick."

Pope Francis

TECH US SILENCE OF HEART

MEDETATION; Today, after Holy Communion, Jesus again gave me a few directives: First, do not fight against a temptation by yourself, but disclose it to the confessor at once, and then the temptation will lose all its force. Second, during these ordeals do not lose your peace; live in My presence; ask My Mother and the Saints for help (Diary, 1717).

MY PRAYER RESPONSE; Lord, thank you for giving me directives about temptations. May I always be open with my confessor. May I remain at peace in the midst of temptation by living in Your presence and asking Mother Mary and the saints for help.

18th - “We pray for all expectant mothers. We pray for an overwhelming sense of hope and joy to fill their lives, and for increased support to be given by their family, friends, and local communities, as they journey through this life-changing experience. Lord hear us”

Island Gardens Foodbank - Supermarket Bag Appeal

The foodbank helps lots of families and local residents who are having a hard time making ends meet. We need hundreds of items of basic own-brand food every week and regular donations really help a lot of people. You can find details on the collection boxes under the table in the Church entrance

We are currently running-out of carrier bags. We need lots of supermarket carrier bags, provided they are clean with no holes or tears. Ideally, we would like lots of Reusable Supermarket Bags, but we can also use lots of Single-Use Supermarket Bags, as well.

Please leave your bags in the collection boxes, if you can help. Sadly, we cannot accept fashion/store bags or blue/black convenience store bags. These bags are not designed to hold lots of heavy food items and may split on the way home, meaning that someone's jars or other food might be damaged or destroyed. Thank you for your help.
