Yesterday, was New Year Day the 1st January and is the feast of Mary Mother of God: On this day we celebrate her 'Yes' to God. A yes that brought God made flesh as one of us in the person of Jesus of Nazareth. And so we feel God's Pleasure. God delights in the human race – yes us; weak, faltering, faulty, disobedient - as we often are. Throughout the coming New Year, let our New Year resolution be 'Yes' to life and love. And we pray that it may be deepen and strengthen by Mary's yes, and let us delight in God's delight in us! Over the past year I have been blessed with your kindness, generosity of time and talents, your good wishes and not least your good humour.
