FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER 2024

"I am the true vine...cut off from me you can do nothing." John 15:1. 5

Joseph the Worker

That which Jesus said of his Heavenly Father: 'My Father is still working, and I also am working' applies also to his foster father, St Joseph. He keeps working: caring and watching over the Church and inspiring humanity to recognise the dignity of human labour. (See quote below) St Joseph, pray for us!

"You are rewarded not according to your work or your time, but according to the measure of your love." St Catherine of Siena.

Very many thanks to all who contributed to the Priest Training Fund. We collected £441. If you still want to make a donation, you will find envelopes at the back of the church or you can use the QR code on the envelope or poster or visit www.rcdow.org.uk/donations. Please continue to pray for vocations and for our priests.

Last Collection: £209.5 thank you very much for your generosity.

COME and LISTEN!

A Light that bears Fruit.

The sixteen panels of our Paschal Candle, painted by Fergal Martin, describe the origins, story and purpose of Christ's coming. All these events should be seen in the light of the Resurrection. If we contemplate and imitate them in that light, they will bear fruit in us.

Announced by Gabriel.

Being transfigured on the mountain;

In hell he rescued Adam & Eve;

Born in a stable.

Therafter he entered Jerusalem;

Later he showed doubting Thomas his wounds,

Presented in the Temple

Shared his Passover with his disciples;

And sent His Holy Spirit At Pentecost giving birth to the Church.

Baptised in the Jordan,

And was crucified,

This spirit converted merciless Saul into the great apostle Paul

Jesus' life was dedicated to his selfless mission, changing water into wine,

Raising Lazarus from the dead;

died and

And moved Stephen to offer his life freely to his persecutors.

Rose again from the dead.

May Christ risen accomplish this in us. Alleluia!

Fergal Martin.
