Genesis 9:8-15. God's covenant with Noah after he had saved him from the waters of the flood. After the great Flood, God made a promise never to bring such destruction on the world again. We still live under that generous and gracious promise.

PSALM 24: Your ways, Lord, are faithfulness and love for those who keep your covenant.

1 Peter 3:18-22. That water is a type of the baptism which saves you now. As the waters of the Flood wiped out the evil of the world, and carried Noah and his family to safety, so the waters of baptism wash us clean from sin and bear us to salvation.

ACCLAMATION BEFORE THE GOSPEL (during Lent):
Praise to you O Christ, King of Eternal Glory.

Mark 1:12-15. Jesus was tempted by Satan, and the angels looked after him.

Jesus calls us to repentance, but not without himself having endured temptation for forty days in the wilderness.

Fr. Robin Burgess has prepared a homily for today, which is available on the parish website in the section entitled 'Homilies/Pastoral letters 2021'

FACE COVERINGS ARE MANDATORY IN THE CHURCH FOR THE DURATION OF YOUR VISIT. PLEASE ENSURE THAT YOUR NOSE AND MOUTH ARE COVERED.

Dear Parishioners,

Together we begin what the church calls the "Joyful Season of Lent".

This year we are already fasting from many of the activities we enjoy. Perhaps we could consciously call this season to mind each time we are frustrated by the pandemic restrictions and offer it as part of our Lenten Fast.

Many people are already helping neighbours. We also have to bear charitably with each other during lockdown. Think of these as Lenten Good Works.

This year we can also support Cafod's Fast Day collection and the Cardinal's Appeal which does great work in our diocese. If you have saved money not going out this past year perhaps you can support these worthy causes.

I am especially fond of prayers which fit in to our day naturally, such as a Morning Offering, Grace before Meals, the Angelus and Bedtime prayers. Perhaps you would like to try some of these during Lent. We also have an online Lenten Retreat on Sunday afternoons, Stations of the Cross on Tuesday Evenings and Saturday Mornings and of course daily and Sunday masses (all in a Covid secure environment).

This Lent as you Fast, Give Alms (Good Works) and Pray, be gentle with yourselves. Fr. Mark

PARISH LENTEN RETREAT: Parishioners are invited to a Lenten Retreat over 6 Sundays in Lent, from 4-5.15 p.m. beginning on 21/2/21. Full details are at the end of this newsletter and on the website in the section entitled Lent.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS DURING LENT:
Tuesday evening after mass 7.30-8.00 p.m.
Saturday morning before mass 9.30-10.00 a.m.

CARDINAL'S LENTEN APPEAL: This Lent, please support the Cardinal's Lenten Appeal and help provide food for children and families in our communities who are facing hunger. You could also support work to help our brothers and sisters come through the global pandemic stronger and better able to cope.

You can collect a donation envelope as you leave the Church today. You may also donate in the wall safe at St. Anthony's chapel near the exit.

CAFOD FAMILY FAST DAY is on Friday 26 February:

Lent is an opportunity to support our brothers and sisters who don't have enough to eat. On Friday you can give up a meal, or eat a simple meal in solidarity.

Please collect a Fast Day envelope as you leave the church this week and give generously.

There will be collected next Sunday.

CAFOD LENT APPEAL: Abdella lives in an extremely remote and mountainous part of Ethiopia. It takes him ten hours a day to collect water. Please donate online at www.cafod.org.uk/give or by using one of our envelopes.

The removal of the Sunday obligation has meant that nobody should feel guilty if they do not attend Mass. This is especially applicable to the more vulnerable.

Please pray at home for the end of the spread of the virus and the distribution of the vaccine.

We ask the intercession of St. Joseph, the protector of the Holy Family and the Church.

ONLINE MASS BOOKING REQUIREMENTS:

Readings at Mass

First reading: Genesis 9:8-15

'There shall be no flood to destroy the earth again'

God spoke to Noah and his sons, 'See, I establish my Covenant with you, and with your descendants after you; also with every living creature to be found with you, birds, cattle and every wild beast with you: everything that came out of the ark, everything that lives on the earth. I establish my Covenant with you: no thing of flesh shall be swept away again by the waters of the flood. There shall be no flood to destroy the earth again.'

God said, 'Here is the sign of the Covenant I make between myself and you and every living creature with you for all generations: I set my bow in the clouds and it shall be a sign of the Covenant between me and the earth. When I gather the clouds over the earth and the bow appears in the clouds, I will recall the Covenant between myself and you and every living creature of every kind. And so the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all things of flesh.'

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 24(25):4-6,7b-9

Your ways, Lord, are faithfulness and love for those who keep your covenant.

Lord, make me know your ways.

Lord, teach me your paths.

Make me walk in your truth, and teach me:
for you are God my saviour.

Your ways, Lord, are faithfulness and love for those who keep your covenant.

Remember your mercy, Lord, and the love you have shown from of old.

In your love remember me,
because of your goodness, O Lord.

Your ways, Lord, are faithfulness and love for those who keep your covenant.

The Lord is good and upright.

He shows the path to those who stray,
He guides the humble in the right path,
He teaches his way to the poor.

Your ways, Lord, are faithfulness and love for those who keep your covenant.

Second reading: 1 Peter 3:18-22

The water on which the Ark floated is a type of the baptism which saves you now

Christ himself, innocent though he was, died once for sins, died for the guilty, to lead us to God. In the body he was put to death, in the spirit he was raised to life, and, in the spirit, he went to preach to the spirits in prison. Now it was long ago, when Noah was still building that ark which saved only a small group of eight people 'by water', and when God was still waiting patiently, that these spirits refused to believe. That water is a type of the baptism which saves you now, and which is not the washing off of physical dirt but a pledge made to God from a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has entered heaven and is at God's right hand, now that he has made the angels and Dominations and Powers his subjects.

Gospel: Mark 1:12-15

Jesus was tempted by Satan, and the angels looked after him

The Spirit drove Jesus out into the wilderness and he remained there for forty days, and was tempted by Satan. He was with the wild beasts, and the angels looked after him.

After John had been arrested, Jesus went into Galilee. There he proclaimed the Good News from God. 'The time has come' he said 'and the kingdom of God is close at hand. Repent, and believe the Good News.'

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that Thou art present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love Thee above all things and I desire Thee in my soul. Since I cannot now receive Thee sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. ... I adore Thee in the Sacrament of Thy love, the ineffable Eucharist.

GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR PARTICIPATING IN THE SMALL GROUPS

1. Please do all you can to join us for the start of the call. It will help us all create a safe, welcoming holding environment for everyone. This includes having your video on, and having a settled and safe space to be still and engage in the session
2. Please extend a gracious welcome to others, and to yourself. It can be simultaneously life-giving and challenging, in one way or another, to be part of a group.
3. Our wish is that there's genuine freedom. Nobody is required to speak or say anything in particular about themselves. Every invitation to speak and participate is just that: an invitation. Passing or staying quiet is perfectly acceptable.
4. Please give your fullest, kindest, warmest attention to the person speaking. Just listen, knowing that they don't need advising, fixing, or saving. Many times, it's our being together with full attention that is most helpful.
