Palm Sunday Passion of Our Lord

Yr C Part 1 (Pg. 184)

Isaiah 50:4-7. I did not cover my face against insult, I know I shall not be shamed. The suffering servant, called and missioned by God, proclaims his faithful commitment and confidence in God's protection, in spite of the intense sufferings that lie ahead.

Philippians 2:6-11. He humbled himself; but God raised him high. Paul proclaims that Jesus' acceptance of suffering and humiliation led to fruitfulness in the Church and glory to God. He urges the Philippian community, and ours too, to imitate Jesus' selfless service of others. In turn we build up our community in our parish, our family, and our world.

ACCLAMMATION BEFORE GOSPEL: Praise to you O Christ, King of Eternal Glory.

The Passion. Luke 22:14-23:56. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. The passion according to Luke is a series of episodes in which Jesus' acceptance of his life of loving service for others, contrasts with their rejection of the grace he offers.

Psalm 21. My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?
