5th Sunday of Lent

Yr C Part 1 (Pg. 176)

Psalm 125

Isaiah 43:16-21. See, I am doing a new deed, and I will give my chosen people water to drink. The Lord continues to work marvels for the people of Israel, preparing a new exodus for them, opening up a new future.

Philippians 3:8-14. Reproducing the pattern of his death, I have accepted the loss of everything for Christ. Paul is convinced of the power of the death and resurrection of Christ to conquer sin and death. His deepest desire is to share in this mystery.

ACCLAMMATION BEFORE THE GOSPEL Praise to you O Christ, King of Eternal Glory.

John 8:1-11. If there is one of you who has not sinned, let him be the first to throw a stone at her. Jesus does not deny the sinfulness of the act of adultery, but he can respect the one who sins, extending mercy and calling her to conversion.

Dear Parishioners, to encourage your Lenten prayer and spiritual listening, the Parish signposts you to the 2022 "Pray More" Lenten Retreat resource. We have made a donation on behalf of the parishioners who may wish to use these talks. You can choose any of the retreat presentations. Each link will take you to a page that has that presentation's video & audio recording, transcript (and closed captions), and study guide. You can watch these at your own pace, in whatever order you would like, and whenever you have the time. Here are our suggestions for which videos to listen to or watch throughout the retreat.

The links can be easily accessed via the home page of our parish website), in the section entitled 'Spiritual

Resources for Lent' (under 'About'), or via today's online newsletter.
