Acts 14:21-27. They gave an account to the church of all that God had done with them. Today's first reading brings a word of encouragement from the preaching of Paul and Barnabas in the early Christian community. Paul's journey takes him back through towns already visited and to Churches already founded. His journey gives fresh heart to the believers.

Apocalypse 21:1-5. God will wipe away all tears from their eyes. In John's vision of renewed creation, there will be no more sorrow. The vision of the New Jerusalem is a vision of the Church's glorious future when the Kingdom of God is come in all its fullness.

John 13:31-35. I give you a new commandment: love one another. The distinguishing mark of the Christian community is love. This love overflows to the whole world. At the Last Supper Jesus gives his disciples the new commandment: 'love one another as I have loved you'. Love is the evidence that we are followers of Jesus.

Psalm 144: I will bless your name forever, O God my King.

I will bless your name for - e - ver, O God my King.
