MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST Yr. C. Vol 2. Pg. 83

Genesis 14:18-20. He brought bread and wine. We see in the bread and wine offered by the priest Melchizedek the foreshadowing of Christ's perfect offering.

1 Corinthians 11:23-26. Every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming the Lord's death. At the heart of belonging to the Christian community is gathering to break the loaf and drink the cup. This is what Paul was taught, this is what he in turn handed on, and so it has continued down to our gathering at mass.

Luke 9:11-17. They all ate as much as they wanted. Christ gathers his people around him, and feeds them.

You are a priest for e - ver, a priest like Mel - chi - zed - ek of old.

Psalm 109: You are a priest for ever, a priest like Melchizedek of old.

ON FATHER'S DAY: Today we honour fathers, husbands, sons and all the men in our lives, remembering those who are no longer with us.

Dear God, Thank you for all the fathers and father-figures in this world and for the many ways you use them to lovingly guide others to You.

We ask that you would bless them and give them great joy and peace.

May they see and know You in new ways.

Show them how much you love and care about them.

Guide their steps, use their hands, and make them a blessing to others as you continue to fulfil your special purpose for their lives. Amen.

DAY FOR LIFE: Bishop John Sherrington, Lead Bishop for Life Issues. 'We invite people to think again about the value and worth of older persons in families, in society, and to make practical choices to build bridges between generations.' The full message can be read here: <https://www.cbcew.org.uk/df122-bishops-message/>

'Do not cast me off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength is spent' Psalm 71:9

'Day for Life' is the day in our calendar set aside to celebrate life from conception to natural death. This year the focus is on caring for and valuing the elderly. Funds raised from this second collection support various Day for Life initiatives, which focus on upholding the dignity of every human life from conception to natural death. Please do support this work in any way you feel able. For information see: <https://www.cbcew.org.uk/df122/>

Papal Blessing: A message and blessing from Pope Francis on the Day for Life 2022. 'The elderly make an essential contribution to the spiritual and material wellbeing of society'. Catechesis on Old Age, Pope Francis: In 2022, over a number of weeks, Pope Francis used his weekly Wednesday audience to offer in-depth catechesis on age. There are many pearls of wisdom in this series including this one: "The little ones learn the power of tenderness and respect for frailty: irreplaceable lessons that are easier to impart and receive with grandparents. For their part, grandparents learn that tenderness and frailty are not solely signs of decline: for young people, they are conditions that humanise the future." The series can be found here:

Podcast on Human Dignity: Episode three of the Catholic Bishop's Conference of England and Wales podcast, 'At The Foot of the Cross' has a focus on human dignity. The last ten minutes of this podcast explores this year's Day for Life theme.

Stickers will be given after Mass, before you leave.

Stickers are not issued in August. It will be your responsibility to look after the card and bring it every week.

If you require a mass attendance card or if you have a query about a CCP certificate, email osterleyccp1@rcdow.org.uk

*NB ccp1 using a digit/number 1 (one) Include your child's
