If you are able to donate, you can buy some on the JRS UK Amazon Wishlist, If you are able to donate, please let us know at uk@jrs.net.

Action Prayer Palm Sunday: The Passion of our Lord. Listening to or reading Matthew's gospel, gives us but a glimpse of the drama and trauma of Jesus' betrayal and crucifixion.

Lord, why have you forsaken me... What is the difference between being forsaken and being betrayed? Both are abandonment. We have all suffered some type of betrayal. It sickens the soul and spirit. It can be heart-breaking. Our Action Prayer this week is to look at betrayal from three different directions, like Peter. In prayer, contemplation, review when you have been betrayed--circumstances, pain. Next, who have you betrayed? Circumstances and what was the other's pain? Then, how have you betrayed, forsaken Christ? Denied his people; denied his two laws? Was it because of greed, of whatever sort? This week let's prepare for Easter by acknowledging and forgiving the betrayals and how we have forsaken ourselves and others
