ACTION PRAYER: Easter: All our readings today proclaim the Good News of the Resurrection!

When Mary Magdalene, and a few apostles discovered the empty tomb, only then did they understand that "he must rise from the dead". They were in awe. Our second reading, "Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven..." is the inspiration for our Action Prayer this Easter week. Daily, let's look for things that are of heaven! Take note of random acts of kindness; people sharing a kind word or smile; the joy of nature waking up from winter; join an interfaith march for peace etc. Look for heaven in action around us! Be part of that action! Be joyful and see that joy and justice does exist in the world all around us!
