PRAYER OF REMEMBRANCE

In the rising of the sun and in its going down

We will remember them

In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter

We will remember them

In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer

We will remember them

In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn

We will remember them

At the beginning of the year, and when it ends

We will remember them

When we are lost and sick at heart

We will remember them

When we have joys we yearn to share

We will remember them

So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are part of us

We will remember them

We will remember, O Lord, all those who have gone before us in faith and now rest with you.

According to your promises, grant to them refreshment, light and peace, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

This Fund ensures our elderly and sick priests are financially supported in their senior years after a lifetime of service. ACTION PRAYER is love in action : Our readings this weekend emphasis being prepared! To seek Wisdom and encourage others to maintain hope, because we don't know when Christ will return. In the gospel, Jesus reminds us to 'Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour.' The reference, of course, is His return--as well us being called home. We aren't living in Gaza or Ukraine, for example, where people are under constant threat. They live being prepared for whatever eventuality. St Paul writes of 'those who have fallen asleep'... Even our Government has asked everyone to be prepared. Another reminder that anything can happen at any time. Our Action Prayer is to pray for Wisdom and to be awake, actively aware, encouraging others with Christ's words and actions of hope, love and wisdom.
