Our Remembrance Book can be found at the back of the Church near the Lady Altar. In this book, we remember all those, whose ashes have been interred in our Memorial Garden. Each month the pages are turned and a list of names for that month are shown. This month we especially remember:

Alexander Sylvester, John Hughes,
John Plackett, Anne Cranfield and Douglas Daveigas.

May they rest in peace

Eye Witness - Stories from Israel and the West Bank. You are warmly invited to a talk on some of the problems in Palestine and Jerusalem at the present time, and what we can do to help. This is a talk by eyewitnesses, who have been out in the Holy Land and who are asking us to call for justice for the ordinary people in their everyday lives. As Christians, we should be ready to offer our support for those who live in the holy places while we still can. Please come to St Luke's Church, Love Lane, Pinner HA5 3EX, on Wednesday 22nd July at 7.30pm in the Parish centre (next to the church) to hear this talk. Refreshments will be available and I'm sure you will find it interesting and informative. You will be most welcome.
