Dear Friends,

This is my last weekend as your Parish Priest. I shall be leaving on Tuesday after the 10 o'clock Mass. Father Tony Pellegrini will be covering the rest of the week and next weekend. Your new Parish Priest, Father Tony Thomas will start his ministry here on Monday 7th September. I have no doubt that you will make him as welcome as you certainly made me feel when I arrived during the second lockdown. I believe that there will be a small do after the 11 o'clock Mass this Sunday but the plan, at present, is that my more formal farewell will take place after the 11 o'clock Mass on Sunday 18th October, the Feast of Saint Luke.

My thanks to all of you for your generosity, kindness, support and patience during my five and a half years here. Thank you too for various cards and gifts which have mysteriously appeared. I also need to say that, if I have in any way offended or upset anyone I ask now for your forgiveness. None of us is perfect and, even doing our best, as God calls us to do, doesn't mean that we get everything right.

Once Father Tony is established here, you may well see me again as I hope to give holiday cover to the priests in the local parishes. My email will remain vincentbrady@rcdow.org.uk All I ask is that you please keep me in your prayers and be assured that all of you, the people of this lovely parish, will continue to have a permanent place in mine. May God bless you and keep you always in his love.

Sincerely yours in the Lord.

Vincent Brady
