The Day for Life is celebrated on the Third Sunday of June, which this year is the 18th/19th June. The meditations of Henri Nouwen remain very relevant. Behold the Beauty of the Lord: praying with Icons 2007 p41f

Saint Sergius, in whose honour and memory Rublev painted the Trinity icon, wanted to bring all of Russia together around the Name of God so that its people would conquer "the devouring hatred of the world by the contemplation of the Holy Trinity." Fear and Hatred have become no less destructive since the fourteenth century, and Rublev's icon has become no less creative in calling us to the place of love, where fear and hatred no longer destroy us. The longer we pray with the icon and the deeper our heart is drawn towards that mysterious place where circle and cross are both present, the more fully we come to understand how to be committed to the struggle for justice and peace in the world while remaining at home in God's love.

... I pray that Rublev's icon will teach many how to live in the midst of a fearful, hateful, and violent world while moving always deeper into the house of love." More reflections on this Icon and praying with it may be found at: <https://carfleo.com/2016/05/22/the-rublev-icon/>
