23rd Sunday of the Year

Fr. Duncan writes: It is with sadness we record the death of Cardinal Cormac Murphy-O'Connor. He passed away peacefully on Friday 1st September. As we mourn his death, we reflect on what he has done for the Church during almost 30 years as a bishop, firstly in the Diocese of Arundel and Brighton then nine years as Archbishop of Westminster, before he retired in 2009. Many of us will be thinking of The Cardinal this week and remembering those special ways in which he touched our lives. It could have been when he came to our parish or school, maybe in Lourdes or the Cathedral for a Mass or something he said or wrote. Each one of us will have our own thoughts, our own memories of that special moment. These we thank God for. We thank God for the many blessings the Cardinal has brought to each one of us and to those whom he met.

The Funeral Rites for Cardinal Cormac Murphy-O'Connor

On Tuesday, 12th September, the reception of the Cardinal's body will take place at 10am at Westminster Cathedral with a short service. All are welcome to attend the service. The Cardinal's body will lie in the cathedral throughout the day and all are welcome to visit to pay their respects, pray and sign the book of condolence. At 5pm on the same day, Cardinal Vincent will preside at the Solemn Vespers of the Dead, and Archbishop Bernard Longley will preach. All are welcome to this service. The cathedral will remain open until 8pm for visitors who may wish to pay their respects. On Wednesday, 13th September, the Requiem Mass and burial of Cardinal Cormac will take place at 12 noon. Cardinal Vincent will preside and Archbishop George Stack will preach the homily. In order to allow as many parishes and schools of the diocese to be represented, admission to the cathedral for the Requiem Mass will be by ticket only.

On Wednesday, 4th October, a Memorial Mass for Cardinal Cormac will be celebrated at the cathedral at 5.30pm. All are welcome to attend.

Please note; The morning Mass in Ruislip on Wednesday 13th September will be at 9.00am.

RCIA – Interested in Becoming a Catholic?

Each year, in our parish we have a course for adults who have not been baptised and would like to be, as well as for Christians of other denominations who would like to be received into the Roman Catholic church, and Catholics who have not been confirmed and Catholics who want to know more about their faith. Our first meeting will be towards the end of September. We meet on Mondays at 7.00pm in the presbytery. There is a leaflet with more details in the foyer or speak to Fr. Duncan. The important thing to remember is that we are all called to be evangelizers and to spread the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Youth Club

Youth club returned this week on Thursday night. We have a lovely group of youngsters who enjoy coming along each week, but to continue the running of youth club we desperately need some more adult volunteers to help out. There are varying roles such as running the tuck shop, taking a small group, preparing the food, or simply supervising a room. It doesn't have to be every week, even if you can only help once a month it will still be greatly appreciated. If you are free on a Thursday evening between 7-8.30pm and are willing to help please contact Siobhan on 07908111796. Thanks in advance.
