28th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Fr. Duncan writes: This weekend we welcome Sr Pennie from the Sisters Missionary Committee. She is coming to talk about the work of the Missionary Sisters throughout the world and appeal for our help with their work.

Month of the Holy Souls

November is the month of the Holy Souls when we remember especially those who have died and gone before us 'marked with the sign of faith'. Throughout the month Mass will be offered in our church for all whose names are listed on our November Roll of the Dead. These names will be placed in the sanctuary throughout the month. If you would like the names of your deceased relatives and friends included, please take an envelope from the table at the back of the church and return it with your list enclosed to one of the priests or to the presbytery. Your offering may be placed in the envelope.

Confirmation Preparation

The registration period is now open, so please submit your form to Jo Marsh by this Friday 19th October. If you missed the meeting last week, but are interested in finding out more, please speak to Fr Duncan or Jo Marsh as soon as possible.

Fr Richard George Dangerfield

It is with great sadness that we record the death of Fr George Dangerfield. He died last Saturday evening in Whitby Dene Care Home. Many will know him from the Cardinal Wiseman School in Greenford, where he taught for many years and from the Douay Martyrs School where he also taught for a number of years. His Funeral Mass will be in Westminster Cathedral on Tuesday 23rd October at 11.00am. May he rest in peace.

Gift Aid Tax Received

We have received an amount of £20,578 from the Inland Revenue as a gift aid tax rebate. Many thanks to all our gift aiders who have signed up. If you would like a gift aid declaration form, please contact the parish office.

The Douay Martyrs Catholic Secondary School sits alongside Prime Minister Theresa May in The Parliamentary Review

The Parliamentary Review highlights the best practice of organisations across the private and public sectors. This year's Review aptly displays the collaborative approach that is necessary if the education sector is to continue to flourish. The Headteacher, Anthony Corish, said "I am delighted that we were asked to be involved in this year's Parliamentary Review, it is a testimony to the hard work and achievement of the whole school community. I hope our story is widely read.
