4th Sunday of Easter

Fr. Sebastian writes:

Fr. Duncan is very grateful for all your prayers and support that he has received over the last few weeks. Progress has been made and hopefully he will be back with us very soon.

I am the Good Shepherd the Lord tells us I know my own and my own know me. As we reflect on the Gospel of the Good Shepherd, let us ask the Lord to open our hearts and minds ever more fully to hear his call. Truly Jesus knows us even more deeply than we know ourselves and He has a plan for each one of us. Today I invite you all, specially our young parishioners to consider how the Lord is calling you to follow him and to build up his Church. Whether it be in the priestly ministry, in consecrated life or in the sacrament of marriage, Jesus needs you to make his voice heard and to work for the growth of His Kingdom.

Priest Training Fund

This Sunday is Good Shepherd Sunday and our second collection will support the Priest Training Fund. This fund pays for the priestly formation of men for the Catholic priesthood. There are currently 42 men studying at Allen Hall seminary, 18 of whom are for our own Diocese, and two men are studying in Rome, also for our Diocese. Last year two men who studied at Allen Hall and one who studied in Rome ordained to the priesthood to serve as our future priests. The fund also supports the ongoing enrichment and formation of our ordained priests. Your gift ensures we can provide training for these men responding to Christ's call to dedicate their lives to serve God's people. Please be as generous as you can. Please also pray for vocations and for all our priests. If you do not have a donation leaflet, plenty are still available at the back of the church. You can donate online anytime at www.rcdow.org.uk/donations.

Please take a look at the Priests Training Fund poster on our noticeboard. The poster is linked to a video which you can find on the diocesan YouTube channel and, over the coming days, on the Vocations section of the diocesan website. Anybody reading the poster simply needs to scan the QR code (the square with graphics) on the poster with their phone to be directed to the video. The link to the video, is https://youtu.be/nP_u0A3S-q0 The video and poster include both William Johnstone and Francis Thomas, who recently had placements in our parish.

Covid 19—a very challenging time for many marriages.

So much uncertainty around, health, income, employment, vulnerable family members, children, housing. Different ways of seeing things, coping with change, managing fears can be a source of conflict and stress. It can be difficult to talk, to listen to support and comfort when there is so much uncertainty. Being together all the time, brings different challenges. You wonder would we be better apart?
