7th Sunday of Easter

Fr. Duncan writes: After celebrating the Ascension of the Lord last Thursday, on seventh Sunday of Easter, we await the coming of the Holy Spirit which Jesus promised at the Passover Meal, the Last Supper, he celebrated with his disciples on the night before he died. Between the Ascension and Pentecost, the apostles gathered together in the upper room waiting for the coming of the Holy Spirit. These nine days of prayer is the original Novena. Let us make time each day to offer a prayer as we await the coming of the Holy Spirit next weekend.

New Rules!

As this is being written, we are waiting to hear from the Bishops following the changes announced by the Prime Minister earlier this week. As soon as we have information, we can make the necessary changes to the arrangements in our parish. Until then, we wait!

I am very grateful for all the prayers being offered for me. Progress is being made and I am getting stronger each day. Thank you also for the many cards and Masses that have been offered for me. Please keep me in your prayers.
God Bless to you all, Fr Duncan.

Stewarding

To enable us to re-open the church following the first lockdown, we have been helped by a great team of stewards. These generous men and women have helped to ensure that the church is a place of welcome and safety during this time of pandemic in our country. I am very grateful to all those who help regularly each week. Over the weeks, different people have had to give up for many, very valid reasons. This means our pool of helpers is getting smaller. Can you please help. All that is needed is to come about 20 minutes before Mass, welcome people and guide them to a seat. The stewards also help guide the people for the reception of Holy Communion. Please come and join our team and help us and your fellow parishioners in this way.

Reading at Mass - Ministers of the Word

Are you interested in being part of our parish team of Ministers of the Word? We are currently inviting new readers to take part in a brief training session and join our team, especially at the 6pm Saturday vigil and 6pm Sunday evening Masses. If you are interested or would like more information, please pass your name to the parish office and we will get back to you.

Children's Masses

Our popular Sunday's Children and Family Mass in Hesdin Hall at 10.30am has now resumed. Please register for a space here: <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/most-sacred-heart-family-mass-tickets-120968017597>

Planned Giving Boxes

Thank you to all those who have collected their new boxes of envelopes, they are still available to collect this weekend. Please check your number (same as last year) and your name as you collect your envelopes and email Anne in the office if there are discrepancies. I wish to thank all those who use either planned giving envelopes or standing orders to make their contribution to the running of our parish.

Mary's Meals Pray in May Campaign

May is traditionally the month of Mary, and Mary's Meals is asking for our prayers this month for all the many children in schools in the developing world that the charity supports through its feeding programme. As the pandemic continues to affect so many, we ask for your prayers for those in the world's poorest communities. For more information, please visit www.marysmeals.org.uk
