23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Fr. Duncan writes: Welcome back for the new term. To those who went away for a holiday, I hope you had a good time. I hope that you are fully refreshed ready for this new term. August is usually a quiet month, however this year it has been very busy.

Firstly, Fr Sebastian will be leaving us in a couple of weeks. He has been here for about 8 years. His last weekend will be 10th & 11th of September. He will then head to Rome for further studies. So that we can thank him, there will be a collection over the weekend 10th & 11th of September. We will gather on the Sunday evening after the 6pm Mass for a simple reception in the hall.

A new priest has been appointed and hopefully will arrive within the next few weeks or so.

As we begin this New term – New beginnings, with Fr Sebastian leaving us, there will be some changes. These will become evident in the next week or so. Full details will be in the newsletter. Watch this space.

SVP Food Bank at St Gregory's.

For many weeks now, we have been supporting the St Gregory's SVP food bank with donations and offers of help as they reach out to people in great need. This is a great help to many people who lack some of the basic foods we often take for granted. Many thanks for your continued support.

DEC Pakistan Floods Appeal

Devastating floods have hit Pakistan, leaving millions in urgent need of help to survive. A third of the country is now underwater (that is an area almost the size of Great Britain). Your donation will help CAFOD's local partners support communities with clean drinking water, food, emergency medical assistance and shelter. Please pray for those affected and donate now at <https://cafod.org.uk/Give>.

Energy Bills

In common with everyone else, bills are rising. We must do our best to keep our costs down. Please think carefully how we use lights. Do not leave lights on if they are not needed. Each one of us must play our part and use the resources carefully.

Planned Giving Envelopes

I am very grateful to all those have been supporting our parish through the planned giving scheme. If you have not collected your new box of envelopes yet, they are available for collection. Please ask when you come to the church. If you are now in a position to gift aid your donations or would like to change your planned giving envelope donations to standing order, please email Anne in the office. Many Thanks.
