24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Cardinal Vincent Nichols writes: "On 21 April 1947, on her twenty-first birthday, Princess Elizabeth said, 'I declare before you all that my whole life whether it be long or short shall be devoted to your service.'

Now, seventy-five years later, we are heartbroken in our loss at her death, and so full of admiration for the unflinching way in which she fulfilled that declaration.

Even in my sorrow, shared with so many around the world, I am filled with an immense sense of gratitude for the gift to the world that has been the life of Queen Elizabeth II.

At this time, we pray for the repose of the soul of Her Majesty. We do so with confidence, because the Christian faith marked every day of her life and activity.

Our prayer is that she is now received into the merciful presence of God, there to be reunited with her beloved Prince Philip. This is the promise of our faith, and our deep consolation.

Queen Elizabeth II will remain, always, a shining light in our history. May she now rest in peace.

We pray for His Majesty the King, as he assumes his new office even as he mourns his mother.

God save the King"

A requiem Mass will be said in our church for the late Queen Elizabeth on Sunday 18th September at 10.30am.

This weekend is Fr. Sebastian's final weekend. After all Masses, we will have a collection to help support him in his studies in Rome. After the Sunday evening thanksgiving Mass there will be a small reception for Fr. Sebastian in the hall; teas, coffees, wine, squash and biscuits will be served.

Fr. Duncan has resigned as parish priest and has moved out of the parish. A new parish priest will be appointed in due course.
