Love that makes the Body

Our society is absolutely obsessed with the body. We only have to look around and we see the body on display everywhere, in all forms of adverts. It is true that, in the many ways that the body is used in adverts, it features as an object of desire, either in itself or in looks. Yet, on the other hand it is not wrong to celebrate the body, this beautiful instrument that God has given us, through which we can reach out to so much beauty and goodness in creation. Corpus Christ is indeed a singular feast: I do not know of any other religion that celebrates 'the body': primarily that is what Corpus Christi is about: it is not a celebration of Christ's divinity or sanctity: is it a feast of this wonderful creation of God, the body, which God took upon himself in the Incarnation and which was not disposed of in the Resurrection, but which was made glorious.

It is also a feast that celebrates a body which is given in love: as we look around in our society we see every day the destructive power that sin has when it misuses the body, and, with it, the person in its entirety. On the other hand, we celebrate a Body, which is broken out of love, shared out of love. We hear of bodies that 'make love'; yet in the Eucharist we experience a 'Love that makes the Body', for in Jesus, we, though many, are made into one body, a body of love, for love.

As we contemplate, adore and receive Jesus in the humble species of bread and wine, we receive him in the fullest way in which he could be present. He gives himself over to us for our salvation and the salvation of the whole world. We become the walking tabernacles of this full presence of Christ in this world which Jesus loves, but so many times is unaware of it. In Corpus Christi, as in every Mass, we participate and are made one in the Father's loving plan; a love that makes the body.

SVP News (St Vincent de Paul Society)

B-Attitude, our young person's SVP group in the parish, is for members between 14 and 18 years of age. These youngsters are full of ideas to help in the community. Last year they were involved in a bake sale which raised funds for elderly residents of a local care home. This week they are out in force again -- doing a spot of gardening around the parish's Garden of Our Lady. They had some help from volunteers from HSBC in Eastcote. Pop over and take a look at what has been achieved. There is still lots to do, but this is a good start! If you would like to get involved in this active group please call us (on 07563 775 777) for more information or come along to the next meeting on Friday 25th June at 5.30pm in the church hall.

As always, if you come across anyone in need of our help in the community, please do not hesitate to contact your SVP Team and we will do our best to help: 07563 775 777, info@svpsouthrUISlip.org.uk or www.svpsouthrUISlip.org.uk.
