Thérèse of Lisieux, born Marie Françoise-Thérèse Martin (2 January 1873 – 30 September 1897), also known as Saint Therese of the Child Jesus and the Holy Face was a French Catholic Discalced Carmelite nun who is widely venerated in modern times. She is popularly known in English as the Little Flower of Jesus, or simply the Little Flower, and in French as la petite Thérèse (little Thérèse). Thérèse has been a highly influential model of sanctity for Catholics and for others because of the simplicity and practicality of her approach to the spiritual life. Together with Francis of Assisi, she is one of the most popular saints in the history of the church. Pope Pius X called her "the greatest saint of modern times".

Thérèse felt an early call to religious life and, after overcoming various obstacles, in 1888, at the early age of 15, she became a nun and joined two of her older sisters in the cloistered Carmelite community of Lisieux, Normandy (yet another sister, Céline, also later joined the order). After nine years as a Carmelite religious, having fulfilled various offices such as sacristan and assistant to the novice mistress, in her last eighteen months in Carmel she fell into a night of faith, in which she is said to have felt Jesus was absent and been tormented by doubts that God existed. Thérèse died at the age of 24 from tuberculosis.

'I will seek out a means of getting to Heaven by a little way – very short and very straight little way that is wholly new. We live in an age of inventions; nowadays the rich need not trouble to climb the stairs, they have lifts instead. Well, I mean to try and find a lift by which I may be raised unto God, for I am too tiny to climb the steep stairway of perfection. [...] Thine Arms, then, O Jesus, are the lift which must raise me up even unto Heaven. To get there I need not grow. On the contrary, I must remain little, I must become still less.'

ST VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY (SVP NEWS)

Autumn is quickly approaching and Winter lurks beyond. These seasons can be particularly difficult for our homeless sisters and brothers but this year our fabulous B-Attitudes Team have decided to do something to help! On Saturday 8th Oct, a group of these volunteers, safeguarded by a smaller group of adult SVP members, will be having their first 'Big Sleep-Out' in order to raise funds for homeless initiatives that they have in mind. Fr Paulo has kindly agreed that we can use the church grounds for this Sleep-Out (using just a sheet of cardboard and a sleeping bag!) and if you would like to help then please donate to the collection boxes at the Gifted Shop this weekend or online using the JustGiving page - see our SVP website for the link. Finally, thank you to all who turned up at our annual SVP mass on Fri 23rd Sept and, as ever, please remain 'Aware' of need around us and do not hesitate to contact your SVP Team if our help is needed - 07563 775 777, info@svpsouthruislip.org.uk and/or www.svpsouthruislip.org.uk.
