St Edmund of Abingdon

St Edmund Rich was born at St Edmund's Lane, Abingdon, on 20 November, probably in the year 1175. His father was a rich merchant, hence the surname (which he never in fact used himself). Under the influence of his mother he led an ascetic life. He studied at Oxford and Paris, and became a teacher in about 1200 or a little earlier. For six years he lectured on mathematics and dialectics, apparently dividing his time between Oxford and Paris, and winning distinction for his part in introducing the study of Aristotle. He is the first known Oxford Master of Arts, and the place where he taught was eventually renamed St Edmund Hall.

Between 1205 and 1210 he changed direction, studying theology and being ordained a priest. He took a doctorate in divinity, and soon won fame as a lecturer on theology and as an extemporaneous preacher. Some time between 1219 and 1222 he was appointed vicar of the parish of Calne in Wiltshire and Treasurer of Salisbury Cathedral, and finally became Archbishop of Canterbury in 1233. He was a notable and effective reforming Bishop. His love for discipline and justice aroused opposition, and he found himself ranged against Rome as champion of the national Church. Eventually, like his predecessors St Thomas Becket and Stephen Langton, he retired to Pontigny, where he is buried. He died at Soisy-Bouy on 16 November 1240.

Devotion to him was especially marked at Abingdon, and at Catesby where his sisters were both nuns. Edmund was canonised in 1246, and is the Joint-Principal Patron of the Diocese of Portsmouth.

He is venerated as a vigorous and reforming bishop and as a peacemaker, as well as being a distinguished commentator on the Scriptures and an effective spiritual writer.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY (SVP NEWS)

The SVP Team supports the Jesuit Refugee Service (JRS) by visiting our brothers being held in the Harmondsworth and Colnbrook detention centres, in our borough. To prevent these brothers of ours becoming homeless, in the event of them being released in to the community, the JRS have recently set up Amani House. They now need to turn this house into a home, though, and are appealing for all sorts of items! If you are having a clear-out, why not check out jrsuk.net/make-our-new-house-a-home !! And, if helping the JRS is something you'd like to get involved with, then just get in contact with your SVP Team and we'll explain what we do for them. It is incredibly rewarding. Finally, as always, please remain sensitively and lovingly alert to need within our community and just get in touch with us if you think our help is needed - we can be contacted on 07563 775777, info@svpsouthruislip.org.uk and/or www.svpsouthruislip.org.uk. We will always try our best to help.
