It may seem strange, but today is a Christmas Feast. Not if we only think of Christmas in terms of the Baby in Bethlehem, but if we have followed the Feasts of The Holy Family and The Epiphany, and have seen the Season in terms of the growing manifestation or appearing of the Son of God. This manifestation was seen first by the shepherds and then the wise men from the East. Now in the River Jordan, Jesus, Son of Mary, is revealed to all, as the fullness of all God's promises: This is my Son, the Beloved.

On this day we stand before the revelation of God's love for us, such that he sends his only Son into the world. Christmas without the Baptism of the Lord, and the words that are spoken from heaven, would be incomplete, since it is only in them, that we can see fully, the wonder of what happened in Bethlehem. As we come to the end of the Season of Christmas and look forward to hearing the Gospels in Ordinary Time, we do so, having been shown who it is we listen to: the only Son of God, the Beloved. Happy Feast Day!
